REACTION OF VEEP'S TRIP IS APPRAISED

By LEWIS GULICK
WASHINGTON (AP)—The end of Vice President Richard M. Nixon's historic trip to the Soviet Union touched off today an intense appraisal of its impact on the cold war.

President Eisenhower and Nixon banked on the vice president's tour and the forthcoming swap of visits by Eisenhower and Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev to help thaw a dangerous East-West freeze.

The administration policy was admittedly a gamble, taken against advice from some U. S. strategists who favor continued isolation of the Reds as the surest way to promote the free world.

The hope was that the exchange of visits would impress Khrushchev with America and keep East-West discussion going in the face of the collapse of the Geneva talks on Germany. But Nixon's trip brought no expectation of any immediate turnaround in Kremlin policy in the cold war, which the administration figures could last another 25 to 50 years.

Nixon, who already had cabled back lengthy reports during his two-week tour of the Soviet Union and Poland, made a personal report to Eisenhower during a 75-minute conference at the White House Wednesday.

He will review the trip again at a Cabinet meeting Friday. There was no immediate plan for a public address to the nation, but Nixon spoke informally on a national radio-TV broadcast after his sleek jetliner had arrived from Warsaw Wednesday.

He told of friendly receptions he had received among the people of the two countries, and said they want peace. He urged also that Khrushchev, when he visits this country, be received courteously and without hostile demonstrations.

Southern Iowa Inundated by 9.42 Inches of Rain

FORT MADISON, Iowa (AP)—Torrential rains inundated much of Fort Madison today as the climax of a severe storm which swept southern Iowa during the night.

The 9.42 inches of rain, which fell in just six hours, sent water of three creeks racing over this city of 15,000 in eastern Iowa. Water choked storm sewers backed up into basements of houses. About two dozen families were forced from their homes.

The storm poured torrents of water on a wide area of southern Iowa, taking a heavy toll of crops and bridges.

The heaviest rainfall—11 inches—came at Lineville, just north of the Iowa-Missouri border 125 miles west of here.

No lives were reported lost but one woman, Mrs. Iva Humbard, 33, was carried by flood waters from the porch of her home here and swept two blocks down a creek.

She was sitting in a chair when the water broke around her. Several Santa Fe Railroad workers heard her cries and rescued her.

Retailers Offering Dollar Day Savings Through Friday

Throngs of shoppers visited the 63 participating merchants in Warren's money-saving Dollar Days promotion during the day. The array of bargain offerings will continue through Friday until closing time at nine o'clock.

Shoppers are invited to register at the stores, published in Wednesday's edition of Times-Mirror, to win a free 10 to 12 pound ready-to-eat ham. These Star hams are being given away by the merchants displaying the red and white Dollar Day window signs, to 20 lucky people who visit the participating stores during the semi-annual sales days.

Bargains galore on clothing, furniture and what not were offered in ads in Wednesday's edition. A careful check of these budget-saving bargains adds up to an economical trip to Warren during Dollar Days.

The big sale will end at 9 p. m. Friday. So shop in Warren and save during Dollar Days—all day Friday!

Moonshine Whiskey Caught in Bailor

EDMOND, Okla. (AP)—The corn squeezin' got caught in an Edmond farmer's hay bailor Wednesday. The farmer, who declined to give his name, said his hay bailor bit off several half gallon jugs filled with moonshine whiskey.

Agents of the Alcohol Tax Unit, alerted by the farmer, confiscated 72 half gallons of corn whiskey hidden in the hayfield.

New Civil Rights Bill Heads Into Brisk Scrimmage

WASHINGTON (AP)—A new civil rights bill was headed today into a brisk congressional scrimmage.

Southerners want to kill it by delay. Democratic leaders hope to get party-bruising fights behind them this year, rather than battle over the issue just in advance of next year's elections.

The House Rules Committee, which has wide powers to speed or slow legislation, has the next word. It may act next week on a civil rights bill completed Wednesday by a divided Judiciary Committee. Southerners are well-trenched in the Rules Committee, but the group frequently yields in a showdown to the wishes of the Democratic leadership.

Most Democrats outside the South want to go into 1960, a presidential election year, with any wounds over civil rights healed and with a record of having strengthened the existing laws.

Senate Leader Lyndon B. Johnson of Texas has said little, but is believed to feel the Democratic-controlled Congress must take some action.

The Judiciary Committee voted for a five-point civil rights bill—trimmed well below the original versions offered both by Northern Democrats and by President Eisenhower's administration. But the House bill still is more sweeping than the hobbled version now before the Senate Judiciary Committee, which has just started working over the recommendations of a subcommittee.

Public Hearing on the Erie Freeway Proposed

HARRISBURG (AP)—The State Highways Dept. Wednesday offered to hold a public hearing on construction in Butler County of part of the proposed Pittsburgh-Erie Freeway.

The project would begin at the Allegheny-Butler County line and extend north to about 0.7 of a mile north of Zelenople, bypassing the town. Known as Interstate Route 70, it would generally parallel U. S. Route 19.

Park H. Martin, highways secretary, has said that construction of the Zelenople bypass section of the Freeway is expected to begin next spring, marking the beginning of work on the 118-mile federal interstate highway.

The freeway is to run from Washington, Pa., north by Pittsburgh to Erie.

ADENAUER BACK
BONN, Germany (AP)—Chancellor Konrad Adenauer returned to his office today after four days at home with a slight cold.

INMATES IN HOME KILLED BY GUNFIRE

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—A madman fired repeated shot-gun blasts into a crowded dining room of a home for the aged today killing two of the residents and wounding four others.

He was then wounded and captured in a battle with expert police riflemen.

The gunman, Kyrie Czupirczuk, 42, an unemployed carpenter had been placed in an institution earlier this year after sending threatening letters to President Eisenhower. He was released in April.

He babbled incoherently after his capture and police were unable to determine what imagined wrong led to his outburst.

About 150 residents of the Uptown Home for the Aged were gathered for breakfast in the first-floor dining room when the gun blasts started from the adjoining home where Czupirczuk lives.

Shotgun pellets shattered windows and sprayed residents of the home. Several fell to the floor. Others ran in wild confusion. Some of the more elderly and infirm sat stunned.

Killed were Kalman Galer, 79, and Michael Berman, 84.

Wounded residents of the privately operated home for Jewish people were Samuel Kluger, 74; Pinous Kalter, 77; Abraham Yusem, 85, and Barney Kline, 66.

An employee of the home, George Simms, 50, arrived for work at the height of the shooting. He became Czupirczuk's target but escaped harm and called police.

Expert police riflemen exchanged several volleys with Czupirczuk who was in a second-floor window. Then, fearful for the safety of residents nearby, they charged into his home, smashed down the door to his apartment and shot him several times. He apparently had been wounded and stunned previously.

Other occupants said Czupirczuk had been ill for two days. This morning, they said, he started walking through the building, muttering and banging on tenant's doors. Several saw him carrying a shotgun and fled.

Halt to Barrage Of Statements on Strike Suggested

NEW YORK (AP)—Federal mediators are trying to persuade the steel strike negotiators to stop their barrage of public statements accusing each other and to concentrate on real bargaining for a new contract.

Joseph F. Finnegan, director of the Federal Mediation and Conciliation Service, says: "Anytime parties get together and quit laying down publicity barrages and go to things in a workmanlike way, it's progress."

Finnegan, who maneuvered Wednesday for less blasting in public, said he saw "no indication of any change by either party on any economic issue."

Joint negotiations continue today with the aid of the federal mediators.

The strike of 500,000 members of the union is 23 days old. It has shut down almost 90 per cent of the country's steel production and has idled approximately 107,000 employees in allied industries.

Plane Is Crash-Landed In Field Near DuBois

DUBOIS, Pa. (AP)—A pilot who crash-landed his private plane on a hilltop near DuBois Wednesday left by bus today for New York City. The plane was left behind for repairs.

R. W. Hollister, manager of a private airport at Fort Worth, Tex., was en route to the East Coast from Texas when, he said, the door of the plane opened and he lost control. He suffered minor bruises.

Fishing Derby Attracts Crowd

Not many fish swam over the dam Wednesday, as Warren youngsters participated in a fishing contest as part of the playground special activities on Conewango creek. Prizes were awarded in several categories—most fish, largest, etc. Complete story of the fishing derby and other playground events will be found in Playground News Beat column in today's edition.

Visits May Speed Up Final Adjournment of Congress

Observer Installs Hurricane Awnings

MIAMI, Fla. (AP)—Gordon Dunn, chief forecaster at the Miami Weather Bureau, is installing hurricane awnings on his home.

"We just got a few dollars ahead," Dunn explained, "and my wife decided it was about time we got them. Every year we skip a hurricane, you know, we're one year closer to the next one."

"I don't see any more indications of a hurricane this year than in recent years," he said.

Hurricane awnings can be lowered to cover windows during a storm.

Former Producer And Director Dies Of Heart Attack

NEW YORK (AP)—Preston Sturges, onetime top Hollywood producer, writer and director who authored a Broadway hit play, died here today of a heart attack.

Chicago-born Sturges, who would have been 61 Aug. 28, died in his room at the Hotel Algonquin—a favored hostelry of theatrical folk—where he had resided several months.

Sturges play "Strictly Dishonorable," which later was made into a movie, was a smash hit on Broadway. Produced in 1929, the play ran for two years.

Sturges' fourth wife, Anne Margaret Nagle who is known as actress Sandy Mellen, was reported to be in Hollywood.

Sturges had a hard time crashing Hollywood, where he went in 1932 as a writer for Universal International. But he hit the filmland jackpot in the late 1930s after he had offered to sell Paramount a script for $10—if he could direct the movie.

Paramount accepted, and the result was "The Great McGinty." A political satire starring Brian Donlevy, the picture won Sturges an academy award for (Turn to Page Twenty-Two)

First Versatile Thor Missile Test Fired

CAPE CANAVERAL, Fla. (AP)—The Air Force fired its versatile Thor missile on a 1,500-mile test flight Wednesday night in a prelude to an approaching satellite shot.

The launching appeared perfect. Not far from the launching pad, a 90-foot Thor-Able rocket stands poised to hurl a 142-pound radiation satellite into an orbit about the earth. The attempt is expected in the next few days.

By WILLIAM F. ARROGAST

WASHINGTON (AP)—Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev may accomplish something congressional leaders are having difficulty doing.

He may speed up final adjournment of the present session of Congress.

While the exact dates for the Soviet leader's visit to the United States and for the adjournment of Congress are indefinite, there is one thing certain. Congressional leaders don't want to be in session when Khrushchev arrives in Washington.

They have no heart for a joint meeting of the Senate and the House to hear Khrushchev. The absenteeism might be so noticeable as to create international hard feelings.

Khrushchev's visit tentatively has been set for about the middle of September. Mid-September also has been mentioned as the likely date for adjournment of Congress, unless a speed-up in the work schedule is effected.

The speed-up now is in the making, and the current adjournment target date is Sept. 5, leaving a respectable interlude between the time members of Congress depart and Khrushchev arrives. To leave a shorter interval might be interpreted as a deliberate attempt by the legislators to avert a meeting with their chief.

Apparently, avoiding such a meeting is exactly what members of Congress want to do.

Many members feel that it would be inconsistent for them to (Turn to Page Twenty-two)

Bill Sneaked From Trousers Pivotal Clue for the F.B.I.

ST. LOUIS, Mo. (AP)—A fake $5 bill sneaked out of the trousers of a sleeping husband by his wife proved to be a pivotal clue in helping the Secret Service break up a $10,000 counterfeit ring.

Asst. U.S. Atty. W. Francis Murrell said Wednesday the four-month-old investigation took a climactic turn when Mrs. Dallas S. Barr fished the $5 from the pocket of her cab-driver husband.

He said Mrs. Barr bought some dry goods and handed the merchant the $5 bill unaware that it had one blank side.

Mrs. Barr hastily and blushing retrieved the bill and left the store.

The merchant called police. Secret Service agents raided Barr's home last weekend and found the $5 bill and printing plates.

NOT BAD IDEA!
WASHINGTON (AP)—Rep. Daniel J. Flood (D-Pa.) wants to bring a little bit of Paris to the Capitol. He suggests that an outdoor restaurant be built on the west terrace of the Capitol, which looks down on the Mall and the Washington Monument. It would serve both congressmen and the public.

New Bill Giving Taxpayers Break

HARRISBURG (AP)—Taxpayers get one break out of the four per cent sales tax approved by the House today: the tax on 30 cent purchases would drop a penny.

Under the present 3 1/2 per cent tax, they are paying two cents on purchases beginning at 30 cents. But the new bill stipulates that the two-cent rate start at 31 cents.

Ike Broadcasting This Evening on Labor Legislation

BULLETIN
NEW YORK (AP)—President Eisenhower's address on labor legislation tonight from 7:30 to 7:45 p. m. (EST) will be carried by major television and radio networks.

By B. L. LIVINGSTONE
WASHINGTON (AP)—President Eisenhower joins battle tonight with a divided and quarreling Congress over the future shape of legislation to curb labor racketeering and abuses.

With the labor controls issue coming to a head in the House next week, Eisenhower arranged to go before the nation at 6:30 p. m. EST tonight over major radio and television networks. He is expected to urge stricter controls over labor unions than the House Labor Committee has proposed and the Senate has passed.

Announcement of his plans immediately stirred up demands among some House Democrats for equal air time to voice their disagreement. The networks, however, were reserving a decision until they hear what Eisenhower has to say.

Not since the tumultuous days of 1947, when the 80th Congress enacted the Taft-Hartley Act, has Congress been so bitterly at odds over labor legislation.

With tensions mounting, the House Rules Committee opened wide the door Wednesday to a free-for-all battle when the issue reaches the floor next Tuesday.

The committee, which decides how legislation is to be handled, decreed no limits on the amendments or substitute proposals (Turn to Page Twenty-two)

Red Lamps for Police Cars on the Turnpike

HARRISBURG (AP)—It will be easier from now on to spot a state police car on the Pennsylvania Turnpike.

Joseph J. Lawler, Turnpike Commission chairman, and State Police Commissioner Frank G. McCartney said Wednesday flashing red lamps will be mounted on 36 police vehicles used to patrol the toll road.

They said the lamps will further identify the cruiser cars and will aid in the performance of emergency duties.

G.O.P. SENATE EXPECTED TO SUPPORT COMPROMISE PROGRAM IN NEAR FUTURE

By LEONARD A. UNGER

HARRISBURG (AP)—The Republican Senate is expected to follow up within two or three weeks on House passage of a compromise plan to increase the 3 1/2 per cent sales tax to 4 per cent.

Chairman Edward J. Kessler (R-Lancaster) of the Senate Finance Committee today forecast Senate approval to send the 148 1/2-million-dollar measure to the desk of Gov. Lawrence.

"We are going to have amendments and they should not amount to too much," he told The Associated Press. "As soon as they're disposed of, we ought to be able to move it along."

The governor was represented by the House Democratic leadership as willing to sign the bill that passed the House Wednesday, 118-85, with an assist by the Republicans for the paper-thin Democratic majority. The levy would make Pennsylvania's sales tax one of the highest in the nation.

In addition to increasing the rate, the sales tax legislation would extend the levy to soft drink, automobile inspection sticker fees, laundry and dry cleaning services and retail sales made by beer distributors and at state liquor stores.

The Senate will have to decide whether the increase to 4 per cent should be on a temporary basis or left permanent as in the House version.

Rep. Stephen McCann, Democratic floor leader, said passage of the 4 per cent tax completed the House's task of balancing the governor's revised $1,870,000,000 budget in the next two years.

The tax vote climaxed a day of to-and-fro developments in the House. The "big four" of labor—AFL, CIO, Railroad Brotherhoods and United Mine Workers—came out with a joint statement opposing the measure. But it apparently influenced no one.

A key action occurred in the House Republican caucus. Rep. Albert W. Johnson, Republican floor leader, went behind closed doors on a selling job to round up votes to help the Democrats.

The sales tax compromise was the result of House bipartisan tax discussions last month. The sessions were called after Lawrence's 400-million-dollar tax program floundered on Republican opposition. The only portion of it to become law was an increase in the old 3 per cent sales tax to 3 1/2 per cent April 15 to raise 163 millions.

Cancer Fails Lifetime Ambition of Mother

NASHVILLE, Tenn. (AP)—Mrs. Harold Boyd, 42, was graduated from college with her son two months ago after studying 14 years for the degree.

"I've got a daughter entering college this fall for the first time," said Mrs. Boyd, an elementary school teacher. "I want to get a master's degree and walk down the aisle with her at her graduation."

"I think I will too, because I think the cancer's licked," she added. "But you never know for five years."

Mrs. Boyd died Wednesday of cancer.

Nixon Backers Confident of GOP Governors' Support

By JACK BELL

SAN JUAN, Puerto Rico (AP)—Richard M. Nixon's backers remained confident today that a majority of the nation's Republican governors support the vice president for their party's 1960 presidential nomination.

The GOP state executives generally were reluctant to express public preferences during the 51st Annual Governors' Conference, which wound up its business Wednesday. But the impact of New York Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller on his party colleagues was obviously less favorable than Nixon's friends had feared it would be.

Rockefeller, edged somewhat closer to contesting for the 1960 GOP nomination in public and

Herter Due Home Today From Geneva

By JOHN M. HIGHTOWER

GENEVA (AP)—Secretary of State Christian A. Herter flew home today to tell President Eisenhower that despite the failure of the Big Four foreign ministers' conference, West Berlin is probably safe from Soviet pressure for many months to come.

Traveling by Air Force jet, Herter was due in Washington at 4:15 p. m. EST and planned to see the President an hour after his arrival.

The foreign ministers' conference—one of the longest high-level international sessions in more than a century—recessed indefinitely Wednesday night without agreement on either of the two major problems discussed. These were a German peace settlement and the future of West Berlin.

But Herter went home convinced that the danger of any overt Soviet action to force the Western powers out of West Berlin has been suspended and a new period of decreased tension in East-West relations seems to be (Turn to Page Twenty-two)

Workers Laid Off By Strike Reach Total of 107,000

PITTSBURGH (AP)—The number of workers laid off across the nation because of the steel strike has risen to 107,000.

The figure climbed above the 100,000 mark Wednesday when the Pennsylvania Labor and Industry Dept. reported an additional 8,036 workers furloughed last week.

The idle include railroaders, miners, seamen and others whose livelihood depend on a going steel industry.

The railroad and mining industries have been hit hardest. Of the 8,036 laid off in Pennsylvania last week, 2,993 were railroaders and 1,516 miners.

In other developments, some 500 steelworkers voted to return to work under their old contract at the Michigan Seamless Tube Co. plant in South Lyon, Mich.

In Houston, Tex., about 100 steelworkers picketed the Tenn-Tex Alloy & Chemical Co. plant following a breakdown in negotiations for a new contract.

private utterances here. At times he had the appearance for a man who is being convinced that he ought to make a try for it. At others he was as hesitant as he has seemed to be for months.

The word now is that Rockefeller will decide about Nov. 1 whether he ought to take on Nixon. And he will do that only if he is convinced that the vice president seems likely to be defeated by a Democrat and that he, Rockefeller, has a better chance to keep the White House in Republican hands.

Rockefeller impressed his fellow chief executives as a forceful, alert man, willing to take on any corner who challenge his political philosophy.

CONCERT AND ICE CREAM SOCIAL

Another of the popular outdoor band concerts combined with an ice cream social will be held this evening under the auspices of the Warren Area Music Boosters' to which the public is cordially invited.

Weather permitting the event will be held in the large parking lot in the rear of the Beaty Junior High School building and it is safe to predict will be largely attended. The string group is scheduled for an indoor concert starting at 6:30 o'clock in the cafeteria; the outdoor musical program to start at 7:15 in the parking area. Ice cream, cake and pop will be served in the cafeteria starting at five and continuing until 8:30.

Just as a reminder profits from the event will be used to further musical activities in Warren Area schools, which includes the purchase of band uniforms, instruments, choir robes, rain gear, tape recorder, choir and band training. In passing it might be noted that the Music Boosters also assist in transportation to musical exchange events, summer band school, appearance of college bands, and awards to seniors for outstanding musical abilities.

Sounds like an evening of rare hospitality for all who attend!

LATE SUMMER COINAGE

An editorial from The New York Times:

The early goldenrods come to bloom, rich yellow roadside spangles and promise of September's golden haze. If we still wove homespun we would soon be out gathering "dye's weeds," as goldenrod once was called. It provided a strong saffron yellow dye which brightened many a pioneer mother's dress. Now that dye is largely forgotten, as is the aniscented tea made from sweet goldenrod leaves to abate late-summer weariness. Solidago, the plant's Latin name, has largely lost its meaning, "to make whole," which came originally from the plant's place in the herbalist's list of natural tonics.

To be frank about it, goldenrod is now little more than a weed of the waste places. But a persistent weed, a prolific one, that will brighten the countryside for weeks to come. Most of the goldenrods are native Americans. We have more than one hundred species; Europe has fewer than ten, Britain only one. Our goldenrods range from dwarfs less than a foot high to eight-foot giants, and some of their flower heads have 5,000 florets, produce enough seed to plant an acre.

For years, goldenrod was blamed for hay fever. Now that libel is largely corrected and the blame placed properly on ragweed. Goldenrod pollen is too heavy to be wind-borne and a menace. Goldenrod pollen and nectar, in fact, provide much of the late summer and autumn honey we eat without ill effect. But best of all, the generous goldenrod adorns the whole countryside. It is the bright coinage of late summer days, glittered treasure laid up for September and autumn when the royalty of purple asters and tall ironweed come to bloom.

WASHINGTON (AP)—What will President Eisenhower and Premier Nikita Khrushchev talk about when they exchange visits? Berlin, that's for sure. If it were not for Berlin, there probably would be no meeting at all now.

And three of the four main problems they discussed the last time they met—at the 1955 Geneva summit conference—are still pressing points of conflict: German reunification, American bases overseas, and disarmament.

Geneva solved one of them. One thing discussed there in 1955 was improved: cultural and scientific exchanges between the United States and the Soviet Union.

The two men are playing down the idea they will negotiate. American Allies understandably may feel uneasy for fear of leads when the two giants, the United States and the Soviet Union sit down together.

It is to allay such fears that Eisenhower is going to Europe to talk with the Allies before he meets Khrushchev in September. But the two leaders are not meeting to play beanbag.

They don't have to call what they do negotiating. They can use a less sensitive word by saying they are trying to reach an "understanding." The effect would be the same.

But an understanding is not necessary a flat agreement. After reaching an understanding with Khrushchev, Eisenhower could delay any flat agreement or commitment until he got Allied approval.

Yet, except for some understanding which eases tension over Berlin, it's hard to see Eisenhower and Khrushchev at this time settling any of those separated East and West at Geneva and still do.

It's a good bet Eisenhower hopes for great results, or even any results, from the upcoming talks. He had one lesson on this—the Geneva summit conference—and got burnt.

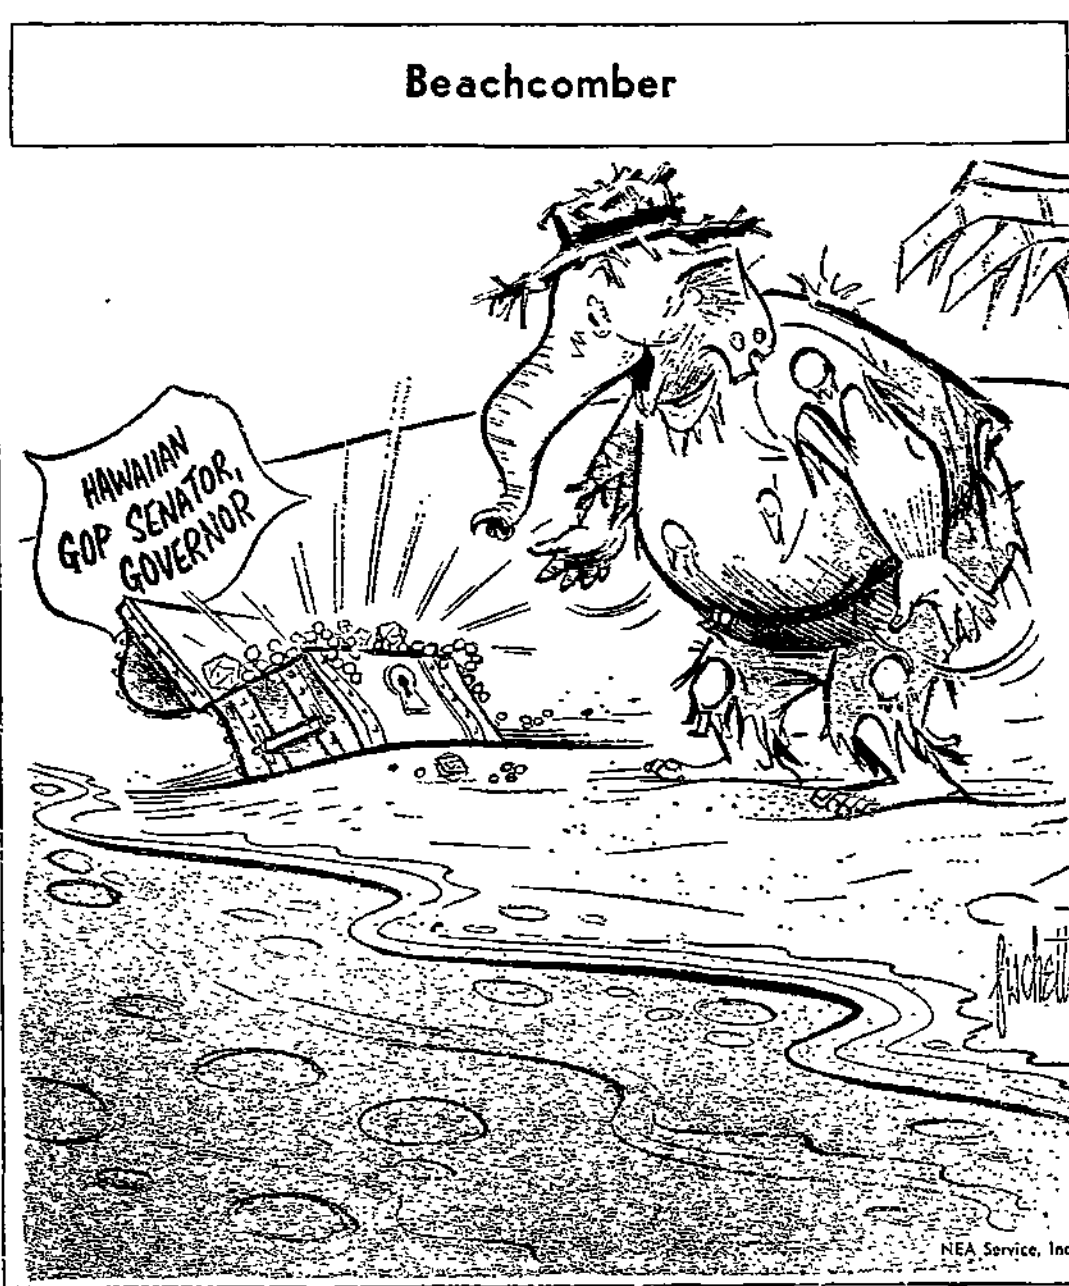

Before that conference he was expressing optimism about the outcome, even said a new dawn might be coming. And as late as two months after Geneva Secretary of State John Foster Dulles was saying "a new spirit does indeed prevail."

But the world got a terrific letdown. The Geneva conference was held in July, 1955, and before the year's end the cold war was as cold as ever. Except for the improvement in cultural exchanges, Geneva settled nothing.

There is no doubt this meeting with Khrushchev was forced on Eisenhower by the Soviet Premier who precipitated the Berlin problem, never yielded, and at the same time kept talking of wanting to meet the President.

Khrushchev had threatened to force the Allied troops out of Berlin. If either side used force in this case, it could have meant war. For weeks the Allied and Soviet foreign ministers discussing with Khrushchev, Eisenhower

Here and There

Insects, which have been pretty much in the news in and about Warren the past week or ten days, are the most experienced flyers in the animal world. They have been air-borne for some 200 million years, and during half that time had the air to themselves. In flight they surpass birds and bats, and in some ways are superior to any flying machine. An airplane may fly farther and faster, but a common housefly can outmaneuver a jet plane. Nature's flying machines work hard at staying aloft, the National Geographic Society says. One species of fly vibrates its wings 1,000 times per second. The mosquito flaps its wings about 300 times a second; the bee nearly 200. Even a relatively sluggish butterfly beats its wings five times per second. The wings of most insects are attached to a special plate on the thorax. Contractions of muscles in the thorax move the plate up and down, producing a converse rise and fall of the wings. Some insects, notably dragonflies, have muscles at the base of the wings to move them directly. Although the phenomenal wing-beating of insects uses much energy and fuel, it doesn't produce exceptional speed. Dragonflies are among the fastest flyers, but their limit is estimated at 43 miles an hour in short bursts. The honeybee cruises at about eight miles and can accelerate to 14 miles an hour. However jet-propelled a mosquito may seem on a summer's night, it is moving no faster than six miles an hour. Several decades ago, it was thought that a deer fly could buzz along at 820 miles an hour. The belief still is popular, despite studies of muscle weight and efficiency that show such speed to be impossible. On the other hand, according to aerodynamic principles, a bumblebee shouldn't be able to fly at all. Some insects are especially effective at distance flights. The familiar orange-and-black Monarch butterfly apparently has flown the Atlantic Ocean, and desert locusts fly hundreds of miles. Wings have been found in the earliest fossil insects, but their origin is uncertain. It is generally accepted that they developed from lobes on the back, making insects the only animals to have mastered the air without sacrificing a pair of limbs. Doubtless insects were destined to fly when the first tall plants appeared in prehistoric swamps. They climbed the plants and then, as the lobes developed, began gliding to the ground. Their rudimentary wings vibrated. This promoted muscular changes that enabled the insect itself to initiate the vibrations. Insects were alone in the skies for perhaps 100 million years after they learned how to fly. When birds and bats took to the air, they ate and otherwise eliminated the less efficient species of insect flyers. The survivors flourished mightily because of their special ability to find food, homes, and protection. It is easy for a tiny insect to seek out a new place to live. Two acres are needed to support a horse or cow, for instance, but eight million insects can live comfortably in the same area.

U.S. Totes Up Score on 'Ugly American' Charges

BY PETER EDSON
NEA Washington Correspondent

WASHINGTON—(NEA)—U.S. State Department and the International Co-operation Administration, which runs the foreign aid program, have issued a rebuttal to charges made against them in "The Ugly American," best-selling novel by William J. Lederer and Eugene Burdick.

Theme of his work was that most Americans in the foreign aid business are bums. The one exception was "The Ugly American" hero. He wanted to do a job for the backward people of Southeast Asia, but he was thwarted at every turn by his sleek, but dopey, superiors who were always outsmarted by their Russian counterparts.

THE FOREIGN SERVICE and foreign aid boys in government took this on the chin as part of their job last year. Then the House Foreign Affairs Committee compiled 15 of the most serious charges in "Ugly American" and asked the State Department, "True or false?"

The answers are now printed in a House committee report on "Criticism of the Foreign Aid Program." It was released before voting on this year's programs began.

There isn't space here to give all the answers. But a few condensations will give the idea, in fairness to both the authors and the government people.

Most important, the State Department admits that the title character of "The Ugly American" was drawn from a real person. He was an ICA technician named Otto Kurnevadell. With his wife Helen, he served in Burma from 1949 until his death in 1951. They were widely loved.

THE AUTHORS STATE that the model for the offensive Joe Bing, described as chief of information in the mythical country of Setlaya, is not fiction.

ICA says it can't identify him, but that he may be a composite of the unfortunate personality traits of many people, wrapped into one bundle. ICA points out, however, that since 1953 it has had no information officers of its own overseas.

In chapter two of the novel is the story of a U.S. shipment of rice to the imaginary country of Sarkhan. This was turned into Communist propaganda by the clever Russians. They stenciled on each bag, in the native language, "This rice is a gift from Russia." The authors admit in their factual epilogue that this never happened.

IN CHAPTER 14 of the novel is the story of an ICA technician character named Tom Knox who was forced to resign because he wanted to import some chickens into Cambodia.

ICA says the factual basis for this is that 5,000 chickens and 12,000 hatching eggs were sent to Cambodia in 1957. From this beginning, 30,000 chickens were raised in a little over a year. Improved flocks were started by 220 farmers, one of which was 2,000 laying hens. Total cost to the U.S. was $7,500.

On page 283 of "The Ugly American" it says, "We saw America spending vast sums where Russia spends far less and achieves far more." Comments ICA on this:

"The statement is without basis in fact." Ninety-five per cent of Soviet-Sino bloc aid has been spent in six countries. The Communists spent 1.3 billion dollars there while the U.S. spent one billion from 1955 to 1958.

Radio and TV

By CHARLES MERCER

NEW YORK (AP)—The experience of Doris Ann, one of the few women producers in network television, demonstrates her remark that "nobody can call TV religious programs dull any more."

As supervisor of all NBC-TV religious programs — "Frontiers of Faith," "The Eternal Light" and "The Catholic Hour"—Miss Ann says she has the cooperation of all religious faiths in presenting professional shows that deal with contemporary human problems.

But, like all TV shows, religious programs can have their very human problems too.

There was, for example, the time Sal Mineo and several other young actors were costumed and made up to look like toughs for a taped "Frontiers of Faith" program dealing with juvenile delinquency.

They went out to eat after rehearsal and didn't come back as show time approached. Finally someone dashed out frantically in search of them. The "juvenile delinquents" had been prevented from entering NBC elevators by elevator operators because they obviously looked like juvenile delinquents.

But human problems are minor compared with some of the zoological problems confronted on "Frontiers of Faith." Like many another TV show, it has had its share of troubles with flies.

Miss Ann insists, however, that the flies which somehow get into "Frontiers of Faith" studios are the most brazen. On one show, as the camera moved in for a closeup of an open Bible, a fly alighted on it and strolled about the page.

There was, the case of the lazy white mice in "The Story of Louis Pasteur." The script required them to race madly on a treadmill. But someone fed them too much before the program, and they fell asleep and refused to stir.

How to Keep Well

SLEEP INDUCERS AND DISTURBERS

Six out of 10 persons have no trouble sleeping. The rest are bothered to a varying degree and a few find falling asleep a real chore. Many of those who are bothered along this line probably do better than they think. They have the mistaken notion that everyone falls asleep as soon as the head hits the pillow, that no one awakens at night, and that everybody climbs out of bed in the morning feeling as fresh as a daisy.

There are as many tricks to induce sleep as there are people who use them. Few of these maneuvers work on others. Those who fall asleep the quickest usually are tired, relaxed and sleepy at bedtime.

Under controlled scientific conditions, Dr. Nathaniel Kleitman found that most people went to sleep more easily in the spring and autumn. Winter was next and summer was the worst for the majority tested. It is more difficult to go to sleep after an exciting day or evening, as we all know.

A glass of warm or cold milk at bedtime made no difference in the experiment. Beer or other alcoholic drink acted like a sedative during the first half of the night but had an adverse effect during the second half. One cup of black coffee before bedtime produced no noticeable effect, but three cups interfered with sleep.

An afternoon nap seldom affects sleep at night. Many—not all—women find sleeping more difficult during menstruation or pregnancy. Poor sleepers usually blame any little disruption of routine, but they sleep well on vacation or when they have worked hard enough during the day to make them tired.

Many persons can't sleep during the day. This is no problem, however, to a group of men who lived inside the Arctic circle, where it was daylight for 24 hours each day during the summer and dark all winter.

Mrs. Blackman Takes Another Gross Award

Mrs. Sidney W. Blackman did it again with a low gross of $3 for the field in the Wednesday women's toss out tournament at Conewango Valley Country Club, and tied her daughter, Carol, for first place net points.

The event in the first flight was a tie between Mrs. Peter Juliano and Carol Blackman, with Mrs. Wendell Lawson taking second net points.

Division Two also had a tie, Mrs. W. S. Calderwood and Mrs. Albert Eberly dividing honors and the latter taking first net. Mrs. Robert Donaldson held second net points.

Winner in Division Three was Mrs. Robert Anstadt, points going to Mrs. Joseph DeFrees and Mrs. Alan Blair. Division Four winner was Mrs. John Newmaker, taking both the event and net, with Mrs. Robert Porter second.

Next Wednesday, the monthly luncheon follows the ladies' golf at the club. Pairings for championship matches have been posted and first matches must be finished by Wednesday, August 12.

Tomorrow, the Northwestern Pennsylvania Women's Golf Association plays its tournament at the local club.

sed the problem. They broke up Wednesday. The result of all their talks was zero. It seems no accident Eisenhower announced Monday—two days before the talks ended—that he had invited Khrushchev here and later would go to Moscow to talk with him.

If there were no arrangements at this minute for these visits, Khrushchev might have been trying right now to make good on his Berlin threats. At least, with the break-up of the ministers' talks, the West and Moscow faced a showdown.

That showdown has not been avoided—ultimately. But at least it has been delayed some months while Eisenhower and Khrushchev get a chance to talk it over. Khrushchev comes here in mid-September, Eisenhower goes to the Soviet Union later.

Therefore, Eisenhower can't lose anything and might gain something—since he knows and Khrushchev knows the Russians have the West in a dangerous spot on Berlin—to try to get a peaceful solution with the Soviet leader.

But Khrushchev is a tough trader. If he yields on Berlin, he will want concessions from Eisenhower, on Berlin or something else.

At this moment probably neither man knows how much he will demand or yield.

The two men have the whole world to talk about, but there is no indication either is ready yet, or to put it another way, feels he has to—talk business if it means yielding much ground.

Entertaining Grandchildren Is One Way to Stay Young

Do you want to be a "superb grandparent"? Then get hold of a copy of "House Beautiful" for August and look over the delightful picture story of what one set of retired grandparents have done to make their home a fascinating place for their grandchildren.

Grandparents of average means couldn't by any stretch of the imagination do some of the things these grandparents have done. But leaving out the elaborate plans, such as a swimming pool, tree house, and coasting paths, there are still plenty of good ideas that cost little or nothing that would help make entertaining grandchildren a pleasure instead of a chore.

One good idea is for the grandparents to have certain shelves where books and toys are kept by the grandchildren—where they know they will be safe from one visit to the next.

Most grandparents, too, could provide an outdoor grill to make mealtimes fun and to enable their grandchildren to help with meal preparation.

Another good idea is in having furnishings that are not too fussy so that parents aren't forever having to say "be careful of this" and "you mustn't touch that."

The sharing of the grandparents' hobbies with their growing, interested grandchildren is still another way of keeping them entertained and at the same time teaching them skills, and giving them all kinds of fascinating new interests.

Being a "grandparent" is certainly worth the effort. For in addition to that no one can give a child more than can a good grandparent, being on happy, comfortable, companionable terms with their own grandchildren does more to keep a couple young than any amount of fighting against old age.

Calvary Baptist WMS Gives Bridal Shower

Miss Marjorie Olney, soon to be a bride, was honored guest for a bridal shower given by the combined membership of the Women's Missionary Society at Calvary Baptist parsonage in Verbeck street.

Miss Olney, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Olney of East Fifth avenue extension will be married August 25 to Theodore Erickson of Midale, Saskatchewan, Canada. She received many beautiful gifts for her future home from the more than 40 members present.

During the regular meeting of the organization, Mrs. Edith Haglund presented devotions, routine reports were given, Missionary Prayer Calendars were distributed, and very interesting reports of the Baptist General Conference sessions at Plymouth, Mass., were given by Robert Chase, Mrs. Clarence Swanson, Mrs. James Holmberg, Mrs. B. E. Shellin and Mrs. Ina Albaugh.

A letter was received from the Korean orphan the Society sponsors, and plans were made for his birthday and Christmas remembrances. There was also discussion of plans for three age groups for the Girls' Missionary Guild, to include juniors 7 to 10, Junior-His 11 to 14, and Seniors 15 to 18. Other projects in the planning stage are the G.M.G. Prayer Partnership Plan, the Reading Program, and the annual Women's Retreat at Burton, O., August 21, 22 and 23.

Mrs. James Holmberg, program chairman, conducted Miss Olney to the wishing well filled with gifts and made the presentation with a bit of sentimental poetry. Mrs. Ben Obinger assisted the honored one in opening and displaying the gifts.

At a late hour, refreshments were served by members of the executive committee. Serving as hostesses, along with Mrs. Floberg, were Mrs. Clarence Swanson, Mrs. Robert Chase and Mrs. James Holmberg.

In conjunction with the Friday tournament of Northwest Pennsylvania Women's Golf Association at Copewang Valley Country Club, a number of members are arriving today to enjoy a picnic supper at the home of Mrs. David Beatty, Copewang avenue, and be overnight guests of local players.

Guests in Mrs. Beatty's home will be Mrs. Grosvenor McKee, Meadville; Mrs. Norman Dilley and Miss Ruth Templeton, Greenville; and Mrs. Paul Seidel, Erie. Mrs. E. G. Hamilton, Copewang avenue, will entertain Mrs. Melvin Zurn and Mrs. Dudley Roth, Erie.

Mrs. W. C. Fuellhart, West Third avenue, will be hostess to Mrs. J. Van Dyke Miller and Mrs. C. E. Piper, Erie; Mrs. Homer Culbertson, Copewang Heights, will have as her guest Mrs. Louise Bliss, Erie.

G.O.P. Committee To Meet Aug. 18 To Fill Vacancies

Official notices have been mailed members of the Warren County Republican Committee by Miss Sunny Lucia, vice chairman, that a meeting of the committee will be held on the 18th day of August eight p. m., at the YWCA for the purpose of electing a county chairman to fill the vacancy created by the death of the late Assemblyman Allen M. Gibson, and to select the party candidate for the House of Representatives in the November election.

It is anticipated the names of three well known Republicans will be placed before the convention as candidates for the Assembly seat—Attorneys J. H. Goddstein and John H. Stewart, and Emmons Jones, well known local business man. Two well known local Republican leaders have been mentioned as possible candidates for County Chairman, District Attorney Samuel Bonavita and William E. Rice, candidate for county treasurer.

Hagberg Family Will Have Record Compiled

The third annual reunion of descendants of Mr. and Mrs. Gust Hagberg was held Sunday, August 2, at Camp Birdsall, Erie, scenic camp at Warren-Forest Girl Scout Council, with 64 persons in attendance.

Activities began with an 11:00 o'clock church service conducted by Richard Hagberg, with the Rev. J. F. Hagberg delivering the message and Donald Hagberg providing special music.

Following a delicious picnic dinner, a business meeting was held, with these officers elected for the ensuing year: Arnold Hagberg, president; Nelson Hagberg, vice president; Lavern Hagberg, secretary-treasurer; Miss Esther Hagberg and Mrs. Earl Abel, historians.

It was announced the historians will attempt to compile a family record and history, to be incorporated into the permanent records of the group and also to be made available those who might wish it. The question of placing a memorial in Scandia Mission church, in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Gust Hagberg and other members of the family who are deceased, was discussed at length and was placed in the hands of a committee for a report at a later date.

The remainder of the day was spent in various activities which the camp site offers, with the majority of the activity centering around the swimming pool.

In attendance were Miss Esther Hagberg, Pittsburgh; Mr. and Mrs. Carl Hagberg and family, Tallmadge, O.; Mr. and Mrs. Burton Peterson, Warren, O.; Mrs. Edith Peterson and Russell Peterson, Youngstown, O.; the Rev. and Mrs. J. F. Hagberg and family, Plainville, Conn.; Mr. and Mrs. Fred Hill and family, Brockport, N. Y.

Mr. and Mrs. Burt Swales and family, Fillmore, N. Y.; Robert and Arthur Hagberg, Erie; Mr. and Mrs. David Olson, Mrs. Betty Olson, Ridgway; Mrs. Ida Hagberg, Jamestown, N. Y.; Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Hagberg and family, Sugar Grove.

Mr. and Mrs. Donald Hagberg, Lander; Mr. and Mrs. Lavern Hagberg and daughter, Russell; Mr. and Mrs. Victor Hagberg, Scandia; Mr. and Mrs. Richard Hagberg and family, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Abel and family, Mr. and Mrs. David G. Olson and family, Warren.

Kill That Bill!

How are game and fish laws made?

There are several approaches in making legislative laws concerning our out-of-doors. Many constructive conservation regulations begin in an affiliated sportsmen's club.

It gets support to the County council, such as Warren's, and is then taken to the Division, Northwest Division for the local club, for concurrence or rejection.

Upon acceptance it is then forwarded to the State Federation for official action of all affiliated clubs of the state organization. Upon favorably running the gamut of the state affiliates the resolution is prepared and presented to a state legislator for sponsoring as a bill and enactment into law.

Selfish Gains Some individuals or groups present bills directly through a legislator. When some of them are entered without first getting the views of professionals, troubles sometimes follow for the legislator sponsoring the resolution.

C. Paul Blair, secretary of Northwest Division, explains that it is entirely possible that the missile was the work of a person or group with ulterior motives for personal gain.

Sportsmen, conservationists and many good American citizens assisted in soundly defeating such a measure this year. It was the highly unpopular and hated firearms registration bill.

The group who wanted the bill were deeply interested in knowing exactly who owns and where every firearm in America is located. Their prime excuse for such legislation is claimed to be the disarming of criminals.

Immediately after the sound thrashing received on this bill, they presented another in its stead. This bill would make it unlawful to carry firearms in a motor vehicle—including shotgun, hunting rifle or longbow. It could also include wheel wrench, tire tools or jack handle.

Sportsmen are once again urged to contact their legislators and ask for defeat of H. R. 2180, the above bill, which is designed to hurt no one but you, the sportsman.

Coast Instructor Reports Results Of Questionnaire

LOS ANGELES (AP)—A high school teacher who could lose his job because of a controversial sex survey he ran in his class says the questionnaire showed these statistical results:

Of the 60 boys and girls who took the quiz voluntarily, 35 per cent of the boys and 16 per cent of the girls had experienced sexual intercourse.

Fifty-eight per cent of the boys and 34 per cent of the girls had indulged in petting. Forty-four per cent of the boys and 32 per cent of the girls had intimately fondled members of the opposite sex.

None admitted any sexual perversion. Cecil Cook, 37, physiology teacher in suburban Van Nuys High School, conducted the survey in two classes of 17-year-old boys and girls last January.

A hearing to determine whether Cook will lose his credentials poses this question:

Does a high school teacher have any right to ask his students about their sex life?

Cook ran the survey, he testified at the hearing Tuesday, at the request of some of the students who had heard of such a survey being given at another school.

A dozen or more teen-agers, mostly girls, show up for each session of the hearing, expected to end today. During recesses some of them crowded around Cook as if he were a football hero—and he looks as if he could have been when he was their age 20 years ago.

DANCING AT CORRAL

The popular series of summer evening dances continues to draw increasing crowds each Friday night at the Corral Inn. Area diners and dancers find that the cool Corral Inn, on the Tidoute Road, is the perfect spot to head for each Friday evening. The kitchen, serving speedy fish fries, steaks, and a full menu, is open until 10. Dance music, by the Corral Inn Orchestra, is under the capable direction of Chas. Young. Chas. also is the piano soloist, and has been known to sing a song or two. The live music schedule features dinner music from 9 until 10—and all styles of popular dance music from 10 until closing time. Featured with the band is Booney Sturdevant on drums.

The July 4 tournament at Fort Worth was based on an Italian motif, and it was fitting that Major Joseph Musameci display his fine Italian hand for the occasion.

Joe's two-club bid was irregular, to say the least, but the results were sensational. West doubled and North went back to two hearts. East let this ride around to West and another double boomed out.

Dummy's ten won the opening heart lead. Joe played a spade from Dummy. East rose with the ace and West discarded the eight of diamonds. Back came the jack of diamonds, covered by Joe's queen and West's ace. West took his ace of trumps and led back the three of diamonds.

Joe won with the ten, drew trumps and spread his hand for two overtricks.

As far as I remember, this must constitute some sort of record. Joe could have been set three tricks so he had stolen five tricks in the play, but even a three-trick set would have done East and West little good. They had a cinch slam in clubs all the time.

Contact Lenses Open New World for Wearer

This girl is wearing a brand-new type of contact lens. Invisible to the eyes of others, these lenses cover only the cornea and are vented for natural flow of tears and air. (Vent-Air)

By ALICIA HART, NEA Beauty Editor

Although nearly six million people in the United States wear contact lenses, most women are not well-informed about the lenses. The reason for this is that once a woman has become used to wearing them, she doesn't discuss them.

For contact lenses, when they've become comfortable, are like second sight. That's what they're intended to be. They are not intended to be worn evenings only or as an alternate to glasses. They are intended to be worn all day and evening, too, and for sports as well as reading or office work.

Many people entertain the idea that it's difficult to learn to wear contact lenses and that they're uncomfortable. The truth is that it takes five minutes to learn how to flick the lenses in and out

Plan To Add to Surplus Foods Is Turned Down

HARRISBURG (AP)—The U. S. Agriculture Department has turned down Gov. Lawrence's request that butter and cheese be included among the surplus food items given to the needy, including those affected by the steel strike.

The governor said Tuesday the department notified him that current shortages of these items in federal inventory allow only enough for nonprofit school lunch programs and charitable institutions.

Lawrence also asked if canned meat might also be added to surplus foods available for needy persons, such as was the case during the 1956 steel strike. The federal government said that surplus food items now available are flour, corn meal, rice, nonfat dry milk and dried whole-egg solids.

Important Reminder To Holstein Breeders

Now that August is here, you should be thinking about showing your "Black and Whites" at the local fairs. This is a good way of advertising your farm and the Holstein breed.

The dairy show at Youngsville will be held on September 10. In order to enter, your animals must be blood tested within 90 days of the show and must have been negative on the last TE test. It is not required but it is also a good idea to give the animals shipping fever shots.

This year we hope to have more Holsteins than ever at the Youngsville Fair. Thus far about 32 are scheduled to be shown, but there is always room for more, so let's get with it and make this year's Holstein Show at Youngsville the best ever.

Youngsville Plans Further Inquiry Into Fluoridation

At the August meeting of Youngsville Borough Council, Burgess Lewis Crippen was authorized, by a vote of three to two, to appoint a fact-finding committee to study the fluoridation issue. This committee was suggested by a letter of Dr. R. A. Peters, which was read at the June meeting.

The secretary read a letter from A. R. Briggs, in which he stated he felt the issue as voted down by the voters should be left at that status.

Burgess Crippen agreed to check with the Pennsylvania Highway Department in regard to responsibility for guard rails leading to the Main street bridge, as it relates to maintenance and property owners' responsibility and the borough.

Fire Chief Meila See asked that consideration be given purchase of adapters to be installed in present pumpster hydrants of standard 4 1/2-inch nozzles.

The police committee, with the burgess and officers, met prior to the general session to analyze work of that department. Burgess Crippen, reporting, stated several suggestions had been made and will be given further study.

Attorney S. Knox Harper asked that all information be given him to enable him to prepare an ordinance regarding curbing of Highland avenue. Superintendent Sanford advised Council all water services will be checked on that street and

Manufacturers Light & Heat Is Expanding Service

Manufacturers Light and Heat Company is putting $25 million into expansion of six key underground storage fields in the Tri-State area this summer.

The current expansion program will reinforce cold weather natural gas deliveries to more than 300,000 western Pennsylvania and northern West Virginia customers.

Importance of this warm weather work is demonstrated by the fact that gas from underground storage now makes up some 40% of Manufacturers' near-zero weather gas deliveries, manager G. O. McKinley said.

Manufacturers' market requirements vary from about 300-million cubic feet of gas a day during July to over 1-billion cubic feet on a near-zero day. Cross-country pipelines—the sources of over 80% of Manufacturers' gas supplies—deliver about 500-million cubic feet of gas a day to the utility.

In addition to this 500-million, Manufacturers daily supply also includes some 80-million cubic feet of gas produced and purchased from local independent drilling firms.

During summer, this excess 280-million cubic feet over daily market requirements is pumped into storage in depleted underground rock structures which once produced all the gas needed in this area.

On a peak winter day the 580-million cubic feet of gas is piped directly to market. More than 400-million also has to be withdrawn from company storage fields to meet customer requirements, the manager said.

Waiting lists for gas heat are still common in many parts of the country where underground storage isn't possible, he added. The utility's 1959 storage program calls for drilling and reconditioning 59 wells in original natural gas formations in five Tri-State counties.

Areas where Manufacturers is developing additional storage are: Majorsville storage field, Washington and Greene Cos. and Marshall Co., W. Va.; Heald field, Greene and Washington Cos.; Donegal field, Washington Co.; Victory field, Marshall and Wetzel Cos., W. Va.; Holbrook field, Greene Co.; and Brinker field, Columbiana Co., Ohio.

Questions and Answers

Q—I understand the GI interest rate has been raised by law to 5 1/4 percent. Am I correct in thinking the higher rate applies only to new loans, and does not affect loans made before the new law?

A—That is correct. Loans closed before July 2, 1959 are in no way affected by the new law. Only loans made on or after this date can be charged the new 5 1/4 percent interest rate.

Q—My three-year-from - discharge deadline for starting school under the Korean GI Bill will come in August. Can I make application then, and start classes when school opens in September?

A—No. You must actually be in school by your deadline. You may not make application before the deadline, with the idea of starting after it has passed.

Q—I just got married, and can now claim more GI allowance money this Fall as a GI student. What kind of evidence will VA need, so it can raise my school allowance?

A—To claim an increased allowance, you should send VA a certified copy of either the public record or the church record of your marriage. It must bear the seal and signature of who ever keeps the records, in the church or court.

Q—A veteran of my acquaintance is drawing extra pension payments because he requires constant nursing care. Would his extra payments be stopped if a member of his family provided this care, other than someone outside his family hired for the purpose?

A—No. The extra payments would still continue if the nursing care is provided by a member of his family. The law does not specify who shall provide the regular aid and attendance necessary.

Mobile Band Shell for Titusville

BARNES

BARNES — Mr. and Mrs. Charles Conquer and son, Larry, with Gary Hoffman of Warren, are enjoying a few days' trip to New York state, expecting to visit the Corning glass plant and other places of interest en route.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Holden have returned from a two-week Canadian trip, spending some time at Hearst, Sudbury, Perry Sound, enjoying the Navy ships pass through the Welland Canal, and other sites of interest.

Mr. and Mrs. Sherman Grubbs and Mrs. Dorothy Stohl, of Jamestown, enjoyed a week's pleasant camping trip. Guests for several days at the Grubbs home have been Ernest Franceschelli and grandson, "Butch", Youngstown, O.

Elmer Day has been discharged from Kane Summit Hospital and is much improved.

Sunday visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Nichols were Mr. and Mrs. John Nazaron and two sons, of Erie; Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Gilbert and sons, and Mrs. Harrison Dehner, Leeper.

Visiting at the home of Mrs. D. R. Titus for several days have been Nancy and Rickey Dunlop, Arlington Heights, Ill.

Mrs. Ruth T. Miller is spending the week at Chautauqua, the guest of Mrs. Lois Clinger of Tidouette.

Mr. and Mrs. Leon Roberts and daughter, Beverly, of Erie, are visitors this week at the

HOME CALENDAR

Good Styles for Plaids—Plaid, striped, checked, and printed fabrics look best in styles with basic lines and few seams, says Miss Thelma Baierl, Penn State extension clothing specialist. These styles show the effect of plaid and print designs to advantage.

Serve Variety Meats—For a low cost main dish, serve a variety meat, such as liver, sweetbreads, brains, heart, kidneys, or tongue, suggests Penn State extension consumer education specialists. Because variety meats are not so well-known as some cuts of meat, they are in less demand and may be one-third to one-half less than the price of economical meat cuts.

Fluorescent Lamp Fixtures—

When buying a fluorescent lamp fixture, be sure it will be large enough to carry the length tube of necessary wattage, advises Miss Sanna Black, Penn State home management specialist. Once a fixture is installed, only one size tube will fit. An increase or decrease in wattage means a new fixture.

Belt Tips—A well-chosen and professionally finished belt is important to the good appearance of a garment, points out Miss Bernice J. Tharp, Penn State extension clothing specialist. When making a garment, keep in mind that belts of self-fabric are usually a good choice. Contrasting and wide belts cut height and make a waist-line appear larger than it actually is.

Lettuce Core Tells Quality—To check lettuce quality, examine the core at the root end of a head, suggests Miss Catherine B. Love, Penn State consumer education extension specialist. If the core is firm and light in color, the head will probably be of good quality.

LEVI EPSTEIN SONS

Something for Warren officials to consider is this new Wenger bandshell which was delivered in Titusville last week and is quartered on the Water Works property there. The shell is shown with the front open and the 20 boxes of chairs stored inside. Later the chairs will be placed in the compartments provided for them in the rear of the shell. The front platform folds into the side when not in use. In the picture, only one section of the front is unfolded. The portable shell will be used for the Oil Centennial activities and for other city functions in the future. Seems like a shell similar to this would be an excellent piece of equipment for Warren, since the greatest obstacle against outdoor band concerts in the summertime seems to be accommodations for the musicians. CORYDON

Corydon—Mrs. O. A. Benton was hostess Tuesday to the after 500 Club, with two tables in play and favors presented to Mrs. Jessie Bennett for high score; Mrs. Lottie Whyte, second; Mrs. Hulda Black, slam; Mrs. Cynthia Prue, consolation.

Others present were Mrs. Grace Homer, Mrs. Beulah Burch, Mrs. Hazel Benton and Mrs. GlenDine LaDow. The hostess served refreshments to conclude the party. Mrs. LaDow is the next assigned hostess.

The meeting of Corydon Township Supervisors was held at the home of Roadmaster Harry Tome, with Lloyd Smith presiding. Bills were authorized for payment and routine business transacted. All board members were in attendance.

SANFORD

SANFORD—Arthur Garber is in Fort Sill, Okla., for a visit with his son, Captain Robert Garber, serving this summer as a post instructor. From there, they will drive to Tucson, Ariz., to visit Mrs. Kenneth Bolland and family, returning by August 10 to St. Bonaventure University, where Capt. Garber will be an instructor. Mrs. Arthur Garber and Mrs. Howard Garber motored the former's husband to Pittsburgh to catch his plane.

Mr. and Mrs. Marshall Dan-ielson and three children have returned from a 10-day vacation which took them into the Province of Nova Scotia, New Brunswick, to Cape Breton Island, and to Halifax. They report an interesting and educational trip, stating Nova Scotia is a very pretty country, in a rugged way. Farms are very small, much of the farming is done by horses, the people are poor, and cars are scarce.

Ladies of the Grand Valley church have redecorated the parsonage, painting, papering, cleaning, and putting up new curtains and drapes.

John Brown has been visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Brown. Other visitors have been Mr. and Mrs. Stanford Brown and daughters, Janet and Ella May, of Conneautville.

Mr. and Mrs. Louis Crippen and children, Lewis and Kathy, of Owensboro, Ky., are spending a couple of weeks with her mother, Mrs. Bessie Meabon, and his mother, Mrs. L. J. Crippen.

Mrs. Meabon and son, Robert, with the Crippen family, attended the Meabon family reunion on Island Park in Youngsville Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. Albin Okesson and children, Erie, also attended the gathering and came home with the Meabons for a short visit.

Robert Meabon and his mother were in Conneaut to get parts for his combine. Betsy Meabon, Pleasantville, is visiting her grandmother.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Garber were Warren visitors Monday.

WEEKLY FOOD REVIEW

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Rib roast and smoked ham will be offered in many stores throughout the country as best buys this weekend. But there will be a wide assortment of other foods placed in the same category.

Actually, there is not much change in prices in most food items from last week.

Among other foods getting on the best buy list in some sections are turkeys, bacon, spareribs, ground beef, shrimp, scallops, leg of lamb, leg of veal, smoked shoulder, chuck roast and watermelons.

Mid-summer brings a wide list of vegetables and fruits at relatively inexpensive prices. Among them are corn, cabbage, tomatoes, bananas, limes, peaches and watermelon.

There were a few garden items which were still fairly expensive —broccoli and escarole, for example. And the consumer who just has to have apricots or honeydew melons will have to spend more money than the person who can get along with oranges and grapefruit.

One major food chain was running a special on turkeys in the Southeast.

In the Chicago area some stores cut sirloin steak prices, and also were featuring pork sausages. Butcher prices were lowered in the Detroit district, along with prices of fryers.

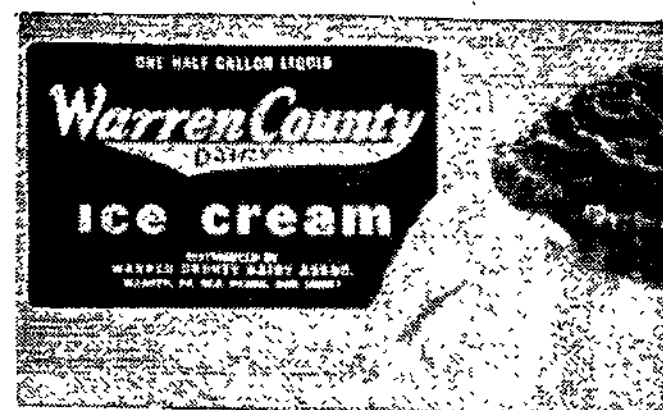

Among vegetables which could be obtained at good, but not best prices, were Western carrots, Idaho early gem potatoes, pascal celery, lemons and Bartlett pears.

UTILITY RIGHT-OF-WAY: Curling smoke working its way from the forests along the high tension electric lines through Sheffield and Clarendon in recent weeks is a sign of progress. Above is a shot of the right-of-way at Clarendon Heights as workmen with humming gas power saws fall trees and burn their tops as the electric line path is being widened for installation of 230-volt lines, replacing the 115 volt cables which supplied area with electricity from the Pennsylvania Electric Co. powerplant at Starbrick. Widening project extends from Ridgway to Warren. Installation of extra voltage lines is being done to keep up with the increased present day demand — Timesphoto Shattuck.

Boyle's Column

by HAL BOYLE
NEW YORK (AP)—How would you like to be a columnist? If not, you're a rare person. Everyone used to have a secret ambition to write a play or a song. Today the secret goal of almost everyone—housewife, truck driver, financier—seems to be to have a column of his own, and make a better world.

The letter columnists get most often starts somewhat as follows: "I've been reading your column off and on for years and feel I could write one just as good, and probably better. How do I go about getting started?"

I usually reply, "It is first absolutely essential that you study Latin and Greek for 10 years, then learn to speak and write at least two other modern languages besides English."

This isn't exactly true, of course. But it does help to weed out a lot of possible future competitors.

All you actually need to become a columnist is two holes—one in your head, the other in the head of the publisher who gives you your chance.

The rest is easy—as easy as chinning yourself with your eyeballs.

The public has the idea that it is simple to write a column every day. But Don Marquis, who did this chore for years until he re-pendent and became a playwright, described it as "digging a daily grave."

Most of the seeming millions of people who yearn to be columnists have the idea they would live in a penthouse, and have a chauffeur-driven car. They dream of hobnobbing with Marilyn Monroe and giving advice to Bernard Baruch.

Well, most columnists actually see a penthouse only when they are invited to the home of a rich press agent. And as for Bernie Baruch, if he's ever called me for advice my phone must have been busy.

Does columning need any special equipment? No. Nothing beyond a two-pants suit. This is necessary because you have to spend long hours sitting in a swivel chair looking at the ceiling as you wait for an idea. That's hard on pants.

Don't let any columnist ever tell you he thinks up his own ideas. He doesn't. He just sits there until one falls off the ceiling.

What are the columnists' rewards? They are the people he meets. Nobody but a doctor meets more interesting people in more interesting situations. They are also sometimes exasperating.

The most exasperating are those who say to columnists:

"Sure I know you write a column. But what else do you do—in all your spare time?"

Farm Prices in Pennsylvania Up Little in June

HARRISBURG (AP) — Pennsylvania farm prices on July 15 were 5 per cent more than received in mid-June but still under those of a year ago, the State Crop Reporting Service said Tuesday.

The Agriculture Department agency reported a crop index increase of 4 per cent. It also noted these other increases: Livestock index, 5 per cent; vegetables, 14 per cent, and poultry and eggs, 33 per cent.

Wheat prices, however, reached the lowest level since October 1946, the service said. Corn, oats, barley, rye and soybeans also showed declines. The meat animal index fell 6 per cent from the previous month as a result of lower prices for hogs, the lowest since April 1958.

Moderate declines were reported for beef cattle, calves, sheep and lambs.

The service said the harvest of the main crop of peaches has started in southern and central counties. Some early apples are available in light supply with the main crop developing normally.

Want to Get Rid of Guests? Try These Sure-Fire Ways

If you never want to see those guests again, it's easy. Just—
Let your small children crawl over them, interrupt the adult conversation, fight with each other and in any way they can, make adult conversation impossible.
Get out the movies you've taken of the children and insist on showing them just one more reel every time they murmur that they really should be going as they promised the baby sitter they would be home by such and such a time.
Invite them for dinner at 7 p.m. and don't serve the food before 9 or 10.
If your children are old enough not to be around, spend the evening talking about them.
If your guests are building a house, sending a child to camp for the first time or have an in-law coming to live with them, tell them all the pitfalls—every sad thing bearing on the situation that you know from your own experience or from the experience of your friends.
Even though they say they rarely watch TV, make them watch your favorite comedian—and then keep the set on for the rest of the evening.
Put them to work, on the theory that it will make them feel at home—and even if it doesn't it will at least lighten the chores of the host and hostess.
A woman guest helping to carry out the dishes may get a greasy spot on her best dress, or a man may burn himself on the charcoal grill because you forgot to explain that the folding legs sometimes fold unexpectedly. But never mind, you've made 'em one of the family, haven't you?
Since these are sure-fire ways of making certain that guests don't hurry back, it's a wonder people employ them and then wonder why "we never see the Browns or the Smiths any more."

Mother and Daughter Shirts in Broadcloth

Blouses for the sub-teen and her mother are ready for fall in crisp white broadcloth. This Mac Shore design has tucked front, French cuffs and inset triangles in a contrasting color.

IN TANDEM—Two heads are better than one when it comes to winning an unusual hat contest. Laurie Ornish, 9, and her mother, Mrs. Edwin Ornish, of Dallas, Tex., won first prize. Laurie wears a water skier trailing the boat on her mother's hat.

PLAYING IT COOL—Young musicians look like anything but longhairs as they practice in casual attire. They're among 83 young string instrumentalists from 65 cities in the United States and Canada attending the International String Congress at Greenleaf State Park in Muskogee, Okla. The program, aimed at developing trained musicians to fill gaps in symphony orchestras, is sponsored by the American Federation of Musicians. From left are Sandy Groschmay of Bartlesville, Okla.; Alice Anderson of Atlanta, Ga.; Rod Goldman of Los Angeles, and Steve Gebhart of Oakland, Calif.

Alimony Hike for Widow Deserted Back in 1916

PITTSBURGH (AP) — A 78-year-old doctor who left his wife and Pittsburgh in 1916 will pay $10,000 a year more for her support.
That agreement was reached Wednesday between counsel for Dr. William H. Moorhead and his wife, Gertrude F. Moorhead of Lancaster.
Shortly after Dr. Moorhead's disappearance 43 years ago, Mrs. Moorhead obtained a court order requiring her husband to pay her $7,000 a year.
Wednesday's court order increases the annual payment to $17,000.
Dr. Moorhead, heir to an old Pittsburgh steel fortune, is living somewhere in the East under an alias, his counsel said.

News of Hollywood

By BOB THOMAS
AP Movie-TV Writer
HOLLYWOOD (AP) — "The Drunkard" may stagger to a stop earlier than expected.
The long-run champ—26 years—is likely to fold by the end of the month instead of Oct. 2 as announced. The Los Angeles Fire Department has aimed a coup de grace at the ancient melodrama, demanding removal of 100 seats at the theatre mart. That would cut the capacity to 240.
"I don't think we can continue operating on that basis," says Mrs. Mildred Ilse, the show's producer.

Gregory Peck is going to work for other producers for a while, but he isn't going to give up his own company. He's doing "Beloved Infidel" and goes to the Greek Isles early next year for "The Guns of Navarone."
"I have three stories which I may do later for my company," he said. "It's no problem to remain inactive; we have only one employee, a secretary, on the payroll."

What happened to "Green Mansions"? The Audrey Hepburn-Tony Perkins film was one of the disappointments of the season, and Tony admits he was disappointed, too.
"The main reason it went sour was because it was shot on the lot," he says. "You can't get the same quality on Stage 30 that you would get in the jungle."

Thoroughness is what wins Fred Astaire Enchanted. He's already at work on his next TV spectacular, which won't hit the home screens until Nov. 4. It's aptly titled "Another Evening with Fred Astaire." This week he got permission from 20th Century-Fox for Barrie Chase to dance with him again.

Josh Logan dropped 50 pounds between directing "South Pacific" and "Tall Story" and is now a trim 200. The only way to do it, he says, is to lose interest in eating.
There's no retirement in view for Billie Burke, still her charming self while facing her 74th birthday Friday.

Butler Tourist in Canada Has Gripe Against Mounties

TORONTO (AP)—A United States tourist claims Markham Township police confiscated his hunting knife for a "downright silly" reason and refused to give it back.
George E. Murrin of Butler, Pa., said in a letter to the Toronto Globe and Mail his car was searched as he stopped for a nap while driving at night in the township just northeast of Toronto.
"The policeman who took my knife called it a dangerous weapon to have lying on the front seat beside me," Murrin wrote. "Surely you are allowed to carry a knife for cleaning game and scaling fish in your car in Canada."
He said he wrote the police July 10 for return of his knife but the letter was not even acknowledged.
Markham Police Chief C. J. Wideman said today the knife had a five-inch blade and was classed as an offensive weapon under the criminal code, which prohibits persons from carrying a blade more than four inches long.
The chief said the two officers told Murrin he could claim the knife the following morning at police headquarters, but he did not. Wideman said Murrin's subsequent letter was "abusive."
"If he had been decent and respectful, I would have been only too happy to wrap the knife up and send it back," the chief said.

SANFORD

SANFORD—Leah Brown has returned from a 10-day trip in company with her aunt, Mrs. Lucille Brown, and the latter's granddaughter, Martha McCurry. They went as far south as Raleigh, Ga., visiting friends in Chattanooga, Tenn., the Rock Cave, Lookout Mountain, and many other places of interest. They came home by way of Michigan, visiting Mrs. Brown's daughter, Mrs. Dorothy McCurry, and family in Detroit, also the Ford Museum, and other historic sites.
The Rev. Rex Meleant, Clare Pierce and Raymond Gates Irotfehaexfv cmfw tiso have left for a week's fishing trip in Canada. The pastor telephoned they had arrived in North Bay and were planning to go about 200 miles farther north, where they have a cabin.
The Rev. Burt Petterson, Jamestown, preached at both Sanford and Grand Valley churches Sunday in the pastor's absence. Mrs. Ella Gates is spending the week with her mother in Corry, while her husband is away.
Mrs. Alice Dalton, Falconer, is spending a few days with her sister, Mrs. Clare Pierce.
Recent visitors of Mr. and Mrs. Luther Gates were Mr. and Mrs. Alan Bittner; Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Gates and two daughters, Titusville; Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Streit and three children, Kane.
Mr. and Mrs. Glen Thompson and children spent several days last week visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Holcomb, at Orchard Park, N. Y. They also visited the zoo, which the children enjoyed very much; also other places of interest. Mrs. Thompson and Mrs. Joyce Brown are helping with the Bible School in Grand Valley.
Mrs. Lily Garber took her granddaughter home to Lake City Sunday after a week's visit here.

GRAYSON'S SCOREBOARD

A's Spurt With Maris, Most Exciting Player
BY HARRY GRAYSON
NEA Sports Editor

KANSAS CITY—(NEA)—This is the unpredictable year in baseball. The Yankees hitting the skids, for example—and the Athletics hanging up the longest winning streak in the majors.
"What have you been feeding these guys?" I asked Parke Carroll, who left the Yankee chain to try to make sense out of the A's in Kansas City as general manager.
"Rare Steak," smiled Carroll, as the batteries were announced at Municipal Stadium. "Seriously, we have been playing a hot hand, but that doesn't mean the worst club in the world just got lucky. This is a pretty capable outfit and everybody has been doing the right thing at the right time."
Kansas City has something more than the Athletics' more recent record to get steamed up about. Roger Maris quickly developed into a big player at 24. Maris, a big, handsome kid standing an even six feet and weighing 195 pounds, does everything well in addition to swatting the long ball.

"MARIS IS THE MOST exciting player in the game today," said Carroll, one-time Kansas City sports writer who has been a baseball executive for 17 years. "I never saw Ty Cobb, but from what I have read about him, Maris has a little Georgia Peach in him, or maybe a lot of Jackie Robinson's get-up-and-go."
"Roger is a gambler—anything but a one-stop player like most of them. Hitting safely to the outfield, Roger takes the turn and if the outfielder is a little indifferent, he'll take off for the next base."
"There is always a play on him. He's a deep-cored boy, as tough as they come and with tremendous desire."

THE TRADE THAT SENT Maris and a couple of others to Kansas City from Cleveland for Vic Power and Woody Held in mid-June of last year worked out well for both clubs when Held made good as a shortstop.
Maris, making a strong bid for the American League batting championship, got off a "wingin'" this spring, but was kept out of the first All-Star Game by an appendectomy. As quickly as he got back, he started winning his way to the second All-Star. Carroll and his field marshal, Harry Craft, just back in the dug-out after a virus attack, built the A's with shrewd trades. Now thoroughly respectable, the A's no longer can be referred to as a Yankee farm club, although no fewer than eight of them came from the New York organization. The Tigers contributed a half dozen.

JOE DE MAESTRI, SHORTSTOP, is the only player remaining from the misfit aggregation which transferred its base from Philadelphia to the Valley of the Kaw.
As Craft stressed, the Kansas City front office doesn't have to apologize for any of its numerous deals.
"The last one with the Yankees gave us an accomplished second base combination, Jerry Lumpe to go with De Maestri. Lumpe can also play shortstop and has batted 265 for us, which is enough. Johnny Kucks has won five games for us and Tom Sturdivant starts and relieves."

See 'Ya At The Game-Hot Stove Series!

Warren Hot Stove League's mock world series games provide plenty of excitement for fans and a world of fun and enjoyment for the youngsters who participate in the championship games yearly.

This year's highlight of the sandlot baseball season is scheduled for August 15 on Warren War Memorial Field. More detailed information as to how the games will be run, according to playing teams, will be announced shortly.

Hot Stovers are contesting in a ticket-selling rally, working for a trip to Pittsburgh on Aug. 23 to see a major league double header between Pittsburgh Pirates and Los Angeles Dodgers.

In order for boys to qualify for the trip, tickets must be turned in to Cliff Terry at Norris Optical Co. office by Aug. 12—which is next Wednesday.

Fans are urged to purchase their tickets now and help the little leaguers in two projects—the Kwanis — sponsored games and in an attempt to see a major league game, expense paid.

From the games, champions in each Hot Stove division will be decided for 1959. Watch Times-Mirror for more information.

Clevenger Breaks Senators Losing Streak at Eighteen

By JACK HAND
Associated Press Sports Writer
Truman for President! That is the new cry in Washington. They mean Clevenger, not Harry as the Truman of their dreams for he is the man who broke the Senators' 18-game losing streak.

Cookie Lavagetto was a desperate man after watching his Senators tie a club mark by dropping their 18th straight in the first game of a doubleheader Wednesday night. The modern major league record of 20 was just around the corner.

Cookie finally settled on Clevenger, a 27-year-old son of Visalia, Calif., who had not started all season. Clevenger had shown enough in 33 relief appearances to convince Lavagetto who by this time didn't need much convincing after watching his other pitchers.

All that Clevenger did was to throw his first big league shutout, a seven hit 9-0 job at the second-place Cleveland Indians and the streak was over. It was the Senators' first victory since the first game of a July 19 doubleheader. Harmon Killebrew woke up, too. He hit his first home run since July 27, (No. 34) and pushed his runs batted in total to 85. Both figures are tops in the American League.

Large Field Expected For Annual Stateline Jalopy Go

Chuck Martin of Russell is expected to receive plenty of stiff competition from about 75 drivers when he attempts to defend his jalopy championship tonight at Stateline Speedway.
Such former champs as Keith Lundmark and Ted Houser, as well as a crack field which includes many late model pilots, will give Martin a fast run to the wire.
Lloyd Williams said Wednesday he expected a crowd of at least 2,600 fans to watch the "crash-banging" race.

Art Metal's Flag Hopes Shattered

Jamestown Art Metal's Inter-city pennant hopes have faded. Koch's Brewers of Dundick, in last place, applied the crusher to the last lingering pennant hopes of Metallites last night when they dubbed Art Metal 9-4. Waite Forsyth of Jamestown Sun reported this morning.
Forsyth said not only did the Brewers collect 13 hits (Art Metal had 8) but they benefitted by mistakes of Jamestown, whose defense was notably porous. The win elevated Brewers to third.
With the Metallites' setback, Jamestown Merchants, who, as the Marlin-Rockwell Rollers, captured the Inter-city League's first pennant a year ago, to don the mantles of gonfalon repeaters.
Newly-crowned Merchants will take on the Brewers in Municipal Stadium Friday night at 7.

Jo-Jo Baseball Classic Sunday

Old's 100th birthday won't be in the limelight Sunday.
The famed Jo-Jo great annual baseball classic will be played Sunday at 3 p. m. at Anderson's Jo-Jo Park, located near Kane.

For years old timers have gathered at Jo-Jo and staged the classic game. On the Jo-Jo lineup are two Warren players, one is Pike Peterson who has agreed to pitch one inning. Others will come from Sheffield, Ridgway, Ludlow, Jo-Jo and Sarasota, Fla.

Katie Indies will oppose Jo-Jo.
It's a great reunion of men who have been friends for years. Sunday's game has been considered "the biggest day since the oil excitement."
Many Warren fans are planning to attend the game, rain date Aug. 16 same time.

Public Sheffield Stag

Sheffield Rod and Gun Club invites the public to its stag Sunday. The affair is an annual event sponsored by the Sheffield club. Deerlick Run, just east of Sheffield proper, will be the scene of the event.

Solar Wins Second Straight As Nameless Nine Takes 7 to 6 Dive

Solar Bombers were very hard pressed by a battling Nameless Nine crew before coming from behind to win 7-6 Wednesday night on West Side diamond.
Bob Schmader relieved starting Steve Peroski in the fifth inning to pick up his second win in two nights. Schmader's first victory came from a three-hitter against Soda Mineral Tuesday.

In the City Softball loop game, Bombers struck for two runs in each of first two frames. Opening singles by Ned Bartholomew and Rex Graham put runners in scoring position to ride home on Hugo McKelvey's fly and Bill Massa's single.

Schmader once again showed power at bat when he slugged a long homer to open the second frame. A single by Steve Peroski, a walk and Graham's squeeze but netted another run for Solar. This gave the Electric Bombers a 4-1 lead. Nameless Nine scored a singleton in first inning on a triple by Chic Stewart and a fly by Dick Smith.

Jim Graziano opened third inning for Bombers, slugging a homer across field.
That was enough to spark Nameless combine to fight back with three runs in their half—coming on a single by pitcher Paul Viglo, a double from Stewart and singles by Smith and Dave Berdine. Nameless were then in control of a 6 to 5 edge in fifth inning on Stewart's second consecutive double.

Rookie Knocks Braves Out Of National League Lead

By JACK HAND
Associated Press Sports Writer
They were kidding Fred Haney, the National League All-Star manager, about Willie McCovey. Somebody asked why McCovey, a rookie who came up from Phoenix last Thursday, wasn't on the squad.
Haney joked right back. "I'm told that this Willie simply wasn't available," he said. "He already was up in Cooperstown getting measured for a plaque."
That was a couple of days ago. Haney hadn't seen McCovey at that time. He probably wishes now that he never did see him for McCovey knocked his Milwaukee Braves right out of the National League lead and has San Francisco on top again today.
McCovey gave the Giants a first-inning lead with a 250-foot homer off Bob Buhl. After Willie

Recent Title Bout Is Facing a Full Scale Inquiry

By WHITNEY MARTIN
Associated Press Sports Writer
NEW YORK (AP)—The fear of violence has been injected into the district attorney's probe of the unsavory circumstances surrounding the promotion of the Floyd Patterson-Ingram heavy-weight championship fight last June.
When Bill Rosenzohn, promoter of the bout and until last Monday president of Rosenzohn Enterprises, Inc., left Frank Hogan's office Wednesday after answering a subpoena, he was accompanied by a detective he acknowledged was a bodyguard.
He did not say whether he had asked for protection or whether it was volunteered by the authorities. Hogan's office declined to comment.
This hint of sinister influences at work came during a day which saw both Rosenzohn and his erstwhile partner in the enterprises, Vincent Vellella, answering subpoenas from the district attorney's office. There also was the announcement by the New York State Athletic Commission that it was starting a full-scale investigation.

Pirates Play Dead Again After One-Game Win Streak

ST. LOUIS (AP)—The Pittsburgh Pirates, who Tuesday night stood up and barked a little, played dead again Wednesday night as St. Louis shut them out 3-0.
In the last 13 games on the current road trip, the Bucs have been shut out four times. They also have dropped 15 out of the last 19, 13 out of 15. The road mark reads 2-11.
The Pirates did achieve one thing in defeat. They gained sole possession of fourth place, moving one percentage point ahead of Chicago.
Bob Friend again was the victim of the Pirates' silent bats Wednesday night as he dropped his 14th. He has just four victories.
Ernie Broglio, the Cards rookie who had given the Pirates 17 runs and 21 hits in 11 previous innings, scored his third shutout in six victories on a four-hitter. He has seven defeats.
The Cards put the game away in the second inning. Joe Cunningham singled, raced to third on Wally Shannon's single and scored on Hal Smith's infield out.
Fred Green was the pitcher when the Cards added their last two runs in the eighth. A two-base fly ball error by Bill Virdon, singles by Bill White and Ken Boyer and Cunningham's sacrifice fly accounted for the unearned runs.
Roman Mejias, playing for the injured Bob Skinner, collected two of the Pirates' four hits. Both times he reached third, but his teammates failed to push him across.
Harvey Haddix, three-time winner over the Cards, will try to give the Pirates a 2-1 edge in the series tonight as he opposes Larry Jackson 9-9. Haddix has a 7-9 mark.

Legislature Considers Longer Hunting Season

HARRISBURG (AP)—An additional month's hunting season at private shooting grounds was given tentative legislative approval Wednesday.
The House Game and Conservation Committee sent to the floor for further action a bill that would add the month of March to the season for such grounds.
At the same time the committee cleared bills removing archery preserves from the game code and raising the fee for nonresident trapping to $20.

NINETY RINGS ON STUMP: An elm tree that could be as old as oil is gone from the Warren scene. Workmen yesterday removed the large tree on Second avenue near YWCA to make room for a new sidewalk. Photographer Everett Stokes said he counted 90 rings on the stump — making the tree 90 year old. Asked Everett: "Was there anything exciting around here then — besides Indians?" — Stokes Studio.

San Francisco Has Strong Candidate For Rookie of Year

By JACK STEVENSON
Associated Press Sports Writer
SAN FRANCISCO (AP)— Sensational San Francisco rookie Willie McCovey is belting the baseball hard and far. In six games he slugged 3 home runs, 2 triples, 2 doubles and 5 singles.
That gives him an average of .462, compiled on those 12 hits in 26 at bats since he was called up from Phoenix of the Class AAA Pacific Coast League one week ago.
Even an approach to that pace would make him a strong candidate for Rookie of the Year.
Wednesday, the 6-foot-4 first baseman, known generally as Stretch, belted two homers and knocked in three runs as the Giants whipped Milwaukee 4-1 to regain the league lead.

Liston Wins Over Valdez But Has No Place To Go Next

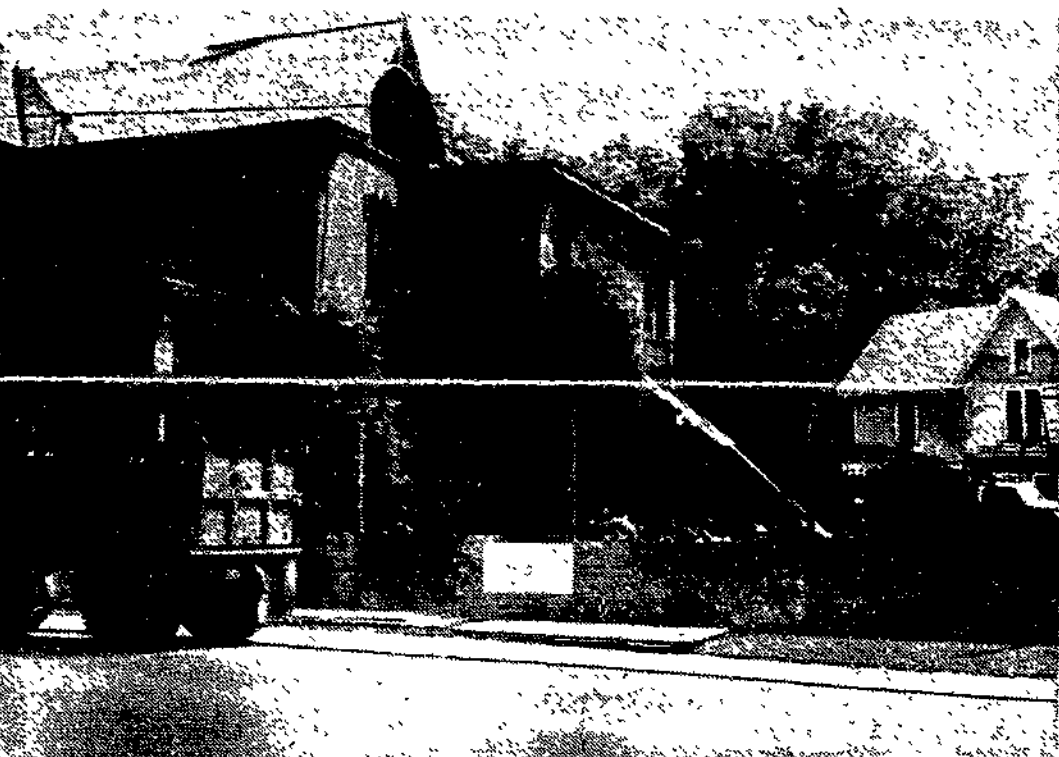

By CHARLES CHAMBERLAIN
Associated Press Sports Writer
CHICAGO (AP)—Pep Barone, manager of heavyweight Sonny Liston, is in a quandary.
"I've got a contender and can't get anywhere with him," he said. "I don't think that Ingemar Johansson-Floyd Patterson rematch will ever come off. I think the Swede won't defend his title for some time and nobody will put pressure on him to do it."
"Why don't they let my boy fight Patterson? For that matter, why won't Zora Foley (the No. 2 contender) fight my boy? Things are really messed up."
Liston, a 211-pounder, knocked out Nino Valdes, another 211-pounder, in the third round of a scheduled 10-round nationally televised scrap in Chicago Stadium Wednesday night.
A left hook to the jaw, a left-right combination and then a steaming right cross sent the big Cuban sprawling. He nearly got up at the count of 10, but not quite. He was a 6-1 underdog.
It was Liston's 18th straight victory, 15 by knockouts, and he now has won 25 out of 26 starts.

LANDMARK DISAPPEARS: A borough landmark has given way to progress. Pictured above is the large brick home of the late Dr. C. J. Franz at Pennsylvania avenue east and Oak street, being razed to make room for a dental office. Property in the rear is also being torn down. Drs. Robert A. Probst and John H. Huey announced plans to construct the one-floor 100-by-40-foot dental office, an expansion of their present facilities at 202 Penna. ave., east, directly across Oak street. Dr. Franz conducted his medical practice from the basement of the home for many years prior to his death recently. — Timesphoto Shattuck.

CRASH LANDING:—As his racing car swerved crazily through the air, Hans Hermann crouched dazedly on the track during the German Grand Prix in Berlin. The automobile went out of control, note the wheel at right, yet the home-grown driver was only slightly injured. Jean Behra of France died after his mount skidded and slammed into a flagpole.

Playground News Beat

More than 60 youngsters from the playgrounds enjoyed the fishing derby held on Conewango dam Wednesday afternoon. Director of the playgrounds, Fred Bell, said nearly all of the anglers caught fish.
Prizes were awarded:
Larry Huber, Memorial for largest fish, 14 in. sucker. Mack's News presented him with a casting rod.
John Link, Beatty, caught 37 fish in the 2½ hours allotted. Ace stores gave him a casting rod for the most fish.
John Link also caught the smallest, a 2 in. bass. He received a big fish lure from Ace Store.
Gail Lauffenberger, Beatty, caught the largest Sandpiper, 5½ in. He received hooks from Ace Store.
Ralph Valone, Beatty, largest variety of fish. He received a casting rod from Farr's Sporting Goods Store.
Danny Stimmell, Memorial, largest bass, 7½ in., for which he was awarded a spinning line from Ace Store.
Ron Simones, Lacy, largest catfish, 12 in. He received a knife from Finley's Sporting Goods Store.
Harry Spackman, Beatty, largest bluegill for which he received a swimming mask from Finley's.
Tony Burke, Memorial, caught a 9½ in. horned ace and received a trout net from Ace Store.
Friday at 10 a. m. youngsters will leave Beatty parking lot for the Chapman Dam excursion. A city lines bus will take the participants to the Dam and a truck will haul the bicycles. At 3:00 the participants will board their bikes for the ride home. Supervisors will keep them in line as they ride back to Warren.
Next Wednesday afternoon the Bicycle Road-E-O will be held at the Beatty parking lot. This is a test of skill and safety riding with points scored for the seven riding tests.

Even the brief debate preceding the sales tax roll call took on the aspects of the routine.

The 1½-hour session wound up with Johnson's announcement that the necessary votes were available. From then on the outcome was cut and dried. After the roll call ended, McCann immediately sought to put to a final vote a proposed constitutional amendment to allow a graduated income tax.

He said Democrats have supported a graduated income levy in principle for many years. But Republicans said they wanted to caucus on it so a vote was put off until next week. But no matter what happens in the House, a graduated income tax is expected to get nowhere among Republicans in the Senate.

The increased sales tax revenue under the House-passed bill is broken down this way: Increased rate, 76½ millions; laundry and dry cleaning services, 26 millions; auto inspections, $1,200,000; soft drinks, $6,700,000, and beer and liquor, $33,300,000.

The House also has passed a plan to impose a 6-mill personal property tax to raise 55 millions, bring natural gas firms under the 14-mill gross receipts tax on public utilities for 11 millions and double the 4-mill bank shares tax to yield an additional 12½ millions.

With the sales tax, the entire program would yield 227 millions in the next two years. McCann says that — with 19 millions in spending cuts — is enough to balance the budget.

Senate Republicans, however, are on record favoring scuttling the proposed personal property levy. They prefer cutting the budget by about 60 millions to balance it.

Both the House and Senate recessed until next Monday with only minor developments on other legislation.

opening. British Foreign Secretary Selwyn Lloyd expressed a somewhat similar view on his arrival in London Wednesday night from Geneva. Recalling the tension which flared when Premier Nikita Khrushchev made his first thrust last November to drive the Allies from West Berlin, Lloyd said the Geneva conference had succeeded in creating "the kind of atmosphere in which you negotiate."

Herter's view is based mainly on two developments: the agreement by Eisenhower and Khrushchev to exchange visits and hold informal talks beginning in Washington in September, and Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei Gromyko's repeated statements here that his government prefers a negotiated settlement for Berlin rather than a decision forced by unilateral Soviet action.

Former Garage Owner Dies After Lengthy Illness

Harold E. Swanson, 416½ Hickory St., who was proprietor of the Nine-O Garage for many years until illness forced his retirement five months ago, died at 11:40 p. m. Wednesday in Warren General Hospital. He had been hospitalized for the past three weeks.

Born in Warren on April 8, 1903, he had spent his entire lifetime here. Long an active member of Calvary Baptist church, he was a member of its board of deacons, the Brotherhood, and was superintendent of the adult department in the Sunday school.

He was also vice chairman of the Christian Business Men's Committee of Warren; a member of the Royal Arcanum and of the United Commercial Travelers.

Surviving are his wife, Gladys Hindle Swanson, and one daughter, Mrs. John I. MacBride, Detroit, Mich.; also two grandchildren; his mother, Mrs. C. O. Swanson, Warren, and the following sisters and brothers: Mrs. Marvin Samuelson, Wayzata, Minn.; Miss Ellen E. Swanson, Mrs. Henry Bluck, Martin, Richard and Clarence Swanson, Warren. He was preceded in death by his father, C. O. Swanson, in 1921, and by a sister, Mrs. Ernest Gustafson, in 1952.

His pastor, the Rev. Neal Floberg, of Calvary Baptist church, will conduct funeral services at 2:00 p. m. Saturday and interment will follow in Oakland cemetery.

JOSEPH L. BARBER
A regular high mass was held at 10:00 a. m. today in St. Paul's Roman Catholic church in Erie for Joseph Louis Barber, 45 year old resident of 2312 Cherry street, that city, and brother of Archie Barber, of Warren. Interment followed in Calvary cemetery.

Mr. Barber, who died early Monday afternoon in Erie Veterans' Hospital, was born in that city November 19, 1913. During World War II, he served as a squad leader with the 474th Antiaircraft Artillery Battalion in Normandy, North Africa, the Rhineland, Ardennes, Central Europe, the African and Middle East campaigns. For the past 12 years, he had been a trucker for Louis Marx Company in Erie.

Also surviving are another brother, Peter, of Erie; three sisters, Mrs. Ford Mattis, Mrs. Anthony Chiosone and Mrs. Anthony Panella, all of Erie; several nieces and nephews.

INFANT JOHNSON
Karen Louise, infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Johnson of Chesterland, O., died at 10:45 p. m. Wednesday, shortly after her birth in Warren General Hospital.

Surviving are her parents; a sister, Susan Ann, and a brother, Gerry Edward; her maternal grandmother, Mrs. Grace Langworthy, Warren RD 2; and her paternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Johnson, of Warren; also several aunts and uncles.

A committal service was held in Oakland cemetery at 2:30 p. m. today, conducted by the Rev. Ernest A. Hook, pastor of Pennsylvania Avenue Baptist church.

ASTRID E. WESTER
Funeral services for Miss Astrid E. Wester, 1613 Madison avenue, will be held at 2:00 p. m. Saturday, conducted by the Rev. Carl Eliason, of Bethany Lutheran church of Sheffield, and followed by interment in Oakland cemetery. The rites were incorrectly given as Wednesday in yesterday's account of her death early Wednesday morning in Warren General Hospital.

FUNERALS
HAROLD E. SWANSON—Friends will be received at the Peterson Funeral Home at the usual calling hours, starting at 2:00 p. m. Friday, and services will be held there at 2:00 p. m. Saturday. The Rev. Neal Floberg, of Calvary Baptist church, will officiate and interment will follow in Oakland cemetery.

More Workers Idle Due To Continuing Strike

HARRISBURG (AP)—The steel shutdown idled an additional 8,036 Pennsylvania workers in related industries during the past week, bringing the total to 35,637, the State Labor and Industry Department reported Wednesday.

In addition, the department said 20,200 more steel workers became unemployed from July 28 to Aug. 4, raising the number of those idled in steel to 168,000.

In other industries, railroad workers were affected most severely. There were 2,993 idled during the same period, for a total of 12,061 railroad employees idled as an indirect result of the strike.

The mining industry reported 1,516 more workers laid off for a total of 12,591 since the steel shutdown began.

Lies Five Days Alone After Fracture of Hip

SAGINAW, Mich. (AP) — Mrs. Sadie Rublowski, 71, cried for help when she fell in her apartment and fractured a hip.

She called at intervals for five days. Nobody heard her. A widow, Mrs. Rublowski lives alone and the apartment below is vacant.

Finally, a neighbor called police after noticing an accumulation of milk bottles on the elderly woman's porch.

Officers found Mrs. Rublowski in a semiconscious state. She had not had food or water during her nightmarish ordeal.

The woman was reported recovering from her injury and malnutrition at a hospital today.

Warren Motorist Arrested for Hit-Run

Frank R. Smith, 22 of 15 West Wayne street, was lodged in Warren County jail early this morning in default of $250 cash bond.

Smith was picked up by State Police after skipping from the scene of an accident on Rte. 62 about 4 miles north of Warren at 12:20 a. m.

According to State Police, Smith's car rammed the rear of a car driven by Sally Yeskey, 25, of RD 2 Russell. There was about $275 damages.

Smith was arraigned before Justice of Peace, Fred Berry th's morning where he pleaded guilty to a hit and run charge.

Special Tax on Clothing To Further Education

HARRISBURG (AP) — The House has been asked to enact a 3 per cent sales tax on clothing to pay Pennsylvania's mounting education bill.

Rep. Albert E. Strausser (R-Columbia) said the bill would produce 90 million dollars in the 1959-61 biennium. He proposed that the plan be enacted as a temporary, two-year measure. Strausser said the tax was endorsed by Columbia County school administrators.

The Pennsylvania State Education Assn., representing the state's school teachers, has asked for some 200 million dollars additional state aid in the biennium.

Fisherman: Why Have You Stopped Buying a License?

Kenneth G. Corey, area State Fish Warden, would like to hear from fishermen who no longer buy fishing licenses in Pennsylvania.

Corey said today that Fish Commission has been advised that public hearings are to be held on reasons why fishing license sales in the Commonwealth have dropped off in numbers in last two years.

"Our Harrisburg office says it is easy to ask questions of the people who are buying licenses, but it is hard to reach and ask questions of those who have just quit buying," Corey said. "For this reason all wardens have been asked to try to get information from their home district people."

"It will be appreciated if the people who used to buy Pennsylvania fishing licenses but who have not done so in the last two years, would write me a postcard or letter in the next few days and tell me why," Corey said.

His address is Kenneth G. Corey, 18 North Main street, Clarendon.

Heiress To Have Plenty Of Changes This Fall

PARIS (AP) — Barbara Hutton is spending several hundred thousand dollars for more than half of Lanvin-Castillo's new collection of fall and winter fashions.

Asked about one report that the bill totaled $200,000, a spokesman for the house replied, "Oh, a lot more than that."

The Woolworth heiress will have plenty of changes for the season. Lanvin showed 171 models, including suits, day dresses, cocktail and evening gowns, coats and furs.

Situation At-a-Glance

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Idle — About 500,000 striking United Steelworkers and approximately 107,000 employees in allied industries. Strike is 23 days old.

Negotiations—Joint industry-union talks called again today. After Wednesday's session, federal mediation chief Joseph Finnegan said he saw no change by either side on economic matters.

Washington developments—Sen. Estes Kefauver (D-Tenn) says strike should be settled before Soviet Premier Khrushchev's visit so United States can show its best economic strength.

Production and wage losses—Industry losses total about 300 million dollars worth of business each week; strikers lose nearly 70 million a week in wages.

Issues—Union wants a 15-cent-an-hour wage hike plus fringe benefits. Industry rejects the demand, claiming higher labor costs would mean higher steel prices and inflation.

Letters to Editor

Warren, Pa., Aug. 5, 1959.
Editor Times-Mirror & Citizens of Warren:

How stupid and brainwashed can this generation get. We have been reading about our Vice President during the last two weeks, trying to show Khrushchev the advantages of a Democratic Government. Still right here in Warren we have some folks who are trying to set aside a referendum on fluoridation, just because the results did not suit them.

Citizens of Warren are you going to let your ballot which is a cherished trust be trampled upon by a few disgruntled citizens, who want their selfish will imposed on the majority.

Fluoridation when allowed to come out in the open and be discussed, always loses, but as a rule the proponents choose to work in the dark, like termites.

We have good water compared to many cities, let's not contaminate it.

An interested citizen.

Sec. of Army Softens Attack on Khrushchev

WASHINGTON (AP) — Secretary of the Army Wilber M. Brucker softened in delivery Wednesday night a prepared speech in which he had hit out in strong terms at the Soviet Union and Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev.

Without assigning a reason, Brucker's office said in advance that while the secretary would stand by the prepared remarks, he would make some changes as he went along.

The speech had been prepared perhaps as long as a week ago. That was in advance of the announcement of the upcoming U.S. visit by Khrushchev and the related effort to build a climate for a polite reception.

New Legislation for Convalescent Homes

HARRISBURG (AP)—Operators of private nursing and convalescent homes and hospitals would be permitted to take out provisional licenses under a bill passed by the House Wednesday 201-0.

The licenses would be good for a period of six months and could be renewed for an additional six months to allow the institution time to comply fully with welfare department standards.

The bill was sent to the Senate for further action.

The House also approved and sent to the Senate a measure authorizing counties—except Philadelphia and Allegheny—to subsidize Memorial Day and Armistice Day expenses of posts of the Society of the 28th Division, AEF, Inc. The vote was 201-0.

Youth and the Bible

BY WILLIAM E. GILROY, D.D.

It is fitting that every Sunday school pupil should have a Bible for his or her very own. It is hoped that this will mean a development into permanent Bible students, with the impact on lives patterned to the best that the Bible has to offer—the teaching, guidance, and example of Jesus in Christian living.

I have often wondered how much of this desired outcome is actually accomplished, and whether the Bibles become souvenirs of the Sunday school years instead of continued and living interest, and inspiration.

There is, of course, no statistical or other way of having any exact answer, but interest in the Bible of some young people, at least, leave no question. In a recent edition of the Bible Society Record, monthly organ of the American Bible Society, there was an account of a six-day meeting at Cornell University, Ithaca, N.Y., of 4,000 Lutheran youth from all over the U.S. and Canada, who came for intensive Bible study.

It was the 13th biennial convention of the Lutheran League of the American Lutheran Church. Some of the young people had come from long distances. And paid from $50 to $150 for the privilege of attending. The students were divided into 205 discussion groups. Studies were Bible-centered, but the article does not indicate at what points the interest was concentrated.

It would be interesting to know how much of the interest was doctrinal and theological, and how much was definitely directed to life-giving values and guidance for character and conduct. Of the results, however, there could be no doubt. The comment of some of the young people made this plain. Here is what they said:

"I only wish I had a month here to study instead of a week. No longer will my Bible be merely a book on the shelf. It will be a personal possession."

"I think this Bible study was great. It has helped me more than anything else to be closer to God. It has helped me to know what sin is. It also has helped me find out how to be forgiven and be united with God."

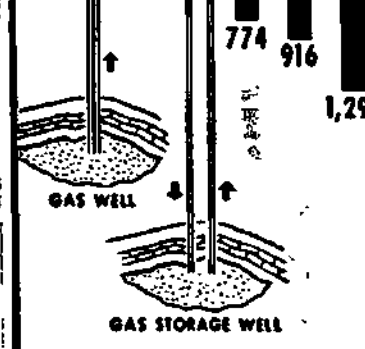

So far as I know, no other single denomination has managed such a well-planned, organized and dramatic Bible study as this of Lutheran young people. But I believe it would be found that various denominations acting together in religious education in summer schools, and in other ways, may have accomplished similar results.

One thing is certain, however, that many young people of today are being brought into permanent relation to the Bible.

And I think another thing is certain, that there isn't any juvenile delinquency among these Bible-studying and Bible-loving young folk. It is a demonstration of what the Bible is. The "freer-thinker," who in a recent full-page advertisement proposed to "unmask" the Bible, might well take note of what the Bible is meaning to youth.

Warren County To Have 19 Delegates At 4-H Club Week

Warren County will have nineteen 4-H Club members as delegates at the 35th Annual 4-H Club Week, August 10-13 at the Pennsylvania State University, reports Blaine Schlosser, Assistant County Agent.

Of these, fourteen are members of agricultural clubs and five of homemaking clubs. They will represent the 850 youths now enrolled in club work in the County.

Because of limited housing facilities at the University, attendance again will be held to around 1,100 delegates from the total enrollment of 44,000 boys and girls in the State. All delegates must have completed at least one year of club work and be at least 14 years old.

In the county delegation will be a dairy judging team consisting of Nancy Curtis, Columbus; Bill Martin, Youngsville; and Charles Lindell, Lander. A dairy demonstration will be put on by Maurice Mahan and Frank Burgett, both from Lander. Also attending Club Week will be the following members of the "When You Step Out" band to provide entertainment: Jeff Siggs and Sherry Cowles, both from Warren; Sandra and Barbara Haller, from Akeley; John Lyon and Carol Fehlman from Russell; Joan Mulvey, Youngsville; Lee Darling and Jean Allen from Sugar Grove.

Other Club members in the county group are: Nadine Kifer, Carol Simones, Sandra Spayd and John Sechrist all from Warren, and Carol Bosko from Chancellors Valley.

The 4-H youths will be accompanied by your Assistant Agricultural Agent and a home economics leader, yet to be announced. Club Week is conducted by the Agricultural and Home Economics Extension Service with the 4-H Staff at the University in charge of the program.

FLOOR SHOW
At White House Inn this weekend is Lynn Stewart, known as the Tempest in Taps. Also John Fox, M.C. and comedian, this combination is one of Pittsburgh's greatest. Dennis says "dance on the new floor to Pat Norman and His Combo's music."

TOPPLES FROM BOAT
What started to be a friendly wave to his wife ended in a fatal plunge from his small boat for a 46-year-old Pittsburgh man Wednesday. He was identified as John Ford. The man drowned in Canadohta Lake, 15 miles north of Meadville, when he fell from a boat as he stood up to wave to his wife. She had just walked out of their vacation cottage. Boaters are reminded of one of the 10 basic rules for boating safety: Never stand up in your small boat.

RECOVERING NICELY
Meadville's Spencer Hospital told Times-Mirror today that James Halberg, injured in a head-on collision near Meadville last Sunday, is going "real well". His condition was reported as satisfactory. Robert F. Wagner, injured when his car rolled over near Jamestown last weekend, is in "about the same condition (good)". Jamestown General Hospital reported today.

FREE IVORY BOARD
A piano reported in good condition, suitable for camp or a beginner player, is up for grabs. It may be had for the taking away by dialing RA 3-1339.

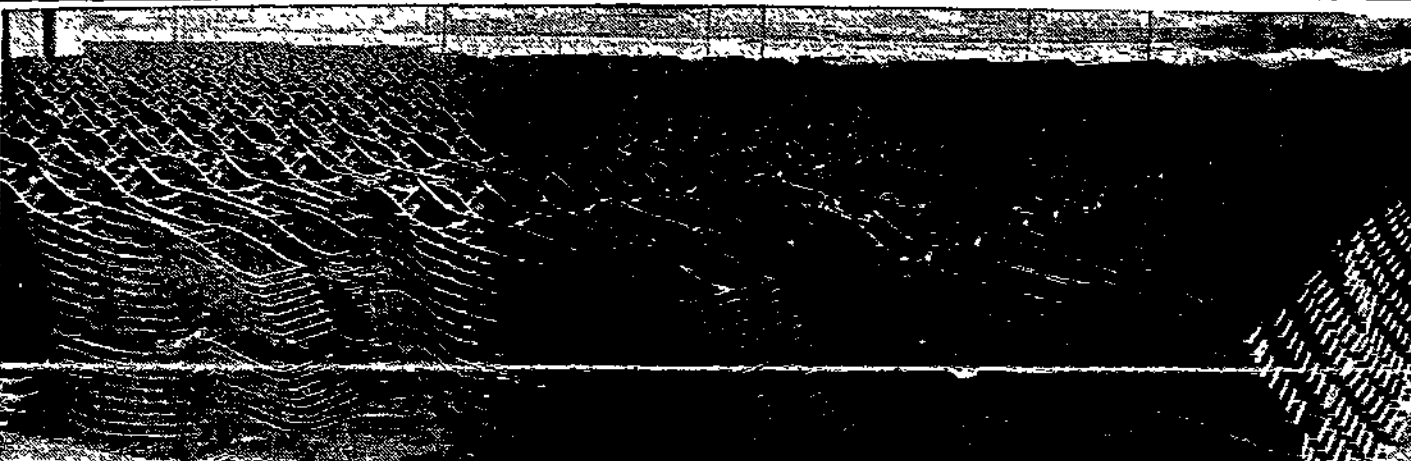

matter of FACT

One of Russia's most famous musicians and composers, Nikolay Andreevich Rimski-Korsakov, was self-educated in music but he was never satisfied that he knew enough. He forced himself to keep studying every point of musical technique. For 11 years, following his retirement from the Russian navy in 1873, he was inspector of naval bands. During the same period he composed 15 operas, two of which were "The Snow Maiden" and "Le Coq d'Or."
